Departure and Consolation George Lewis Parsenius,2005-02-01

In contrast to the common opinion that the Johannine Farewell Discourses represent solely the Jewish genre of the Testament George Parsenius argues that features of the discourses are misread or missed completely apart from Greco Roman literature Evidence from classical drama for instance assists in reading Jesus return to the Father as a dramatic exit and further accounts for the puzzling delay of Jesus at 14 31 without recourse to redaction theories Consolation literature and the literary symposium emphasize Jesus continuing and consoling presence with particular attention to the Paraclete s role as doppelg nger The thread that binds the various chapters into a coherent whole therefore is the utility of classical literature in clarifying Jesus consoling presence even after his departure to the Father
