Constructing and Deconstructing Woman's Power Beth J. Seelig, Robert A. Paul, Carol B. Levy, 2002 This work explores power and gender issues from a variety of psychoanalytic as well as social cultural and philosophical perspectives

Individualizing Gender and Sexuality Nancy Chodorow, 2012 Nancy Chodorow in her groundbreaking book The Reproduction of Mothering quite simply changed the conversation in at least three areas of study psychoanalysis women s studies and sociology In her latest book Individualizing Gender and Sexuality she examines the complexity and uniqueness of each person s personal creation of sexuality and gender and the ways that these interrelate with other aspects of psychic and cultural life She brings her well known theoretical agility wide ranging interdisciplinarity and clinical experience to every chapter advocating for the clinician s openness curiosity and theoretical pluralism The book begins with reflections on Freud s Three Essays on the Theory of Sexuality followed by considerations of Melanie Klein and Stephen Mitchell as well as on her own work and on the postmodern turn in psychoanalytic gender theory Subsequent chapters address contemporary clinical cultural issues such as women and work women and motherhood and men and violence Concluding chapters elaborate on the multiple ingredients and the personal affective conflictual and defensive constellations and processes that create sexuality and gender in each individual Ending with a chapter on homosexualities as compromise formations Chodorow deepens her account of clinical individuality and sex gender transference countertransference while bringing her readers back to Freud and to the many strands that followed as she consolidates a consistent line of interest in sexuality and gender theory and practice sustained over a lifetime

Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Women and Their Experience of Desire, Ambition and Leadership Stephanie Brody, Frances Arnold, 2019-04-08 2020 Grady Award Nominee Best Edited Book Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Women and Their Experience of Desire Ambition and Leadership considers how these factors can be understood nurtured or thwarted and the subsequent impact on women s identity authority and satisfaction Psychoanalysis has long struggled with its ideas about women about who they are how to work with them and how to respect and encourage what women want This book argues that psychoanalytic theory and practice must evolve to maintain its relevance in a volatile landscape Each section of the book begins with a chapter that reviews contemporary ideas regarding women as well as psychoanalytic history gender bias and societal norms and deficits Three composite clinical stories allow our distinguished contributors to discuss the contexts within which individual experience can be affected and the role that clinical work may have to mobilize and advance passion and vitality In their discussions the interplay of clinical psychoanalysis sociopolitical context and understanding of gender combine to offer a unique perspective built on decades of scholarship personal experience and clinical expertise Psychoanalytic Perspectives on Women and Their Experience of Desire Ambition and Leadership will serve as a reference for all psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists as well as gender studies scholars interested in the progress of psychoanalytic theory regarding women in the 21st century

Gender and Educational Leadership in Greece Emmy Papanastasiou, 2024-06-27 Worldwide women constitute the majority of the teaching force but men are more likely to achieve headship Internationally a number of scholars working within sociology and the sociology of education have focused on the continued influence of gender on the shaping of identity and choices in relation to leadership work and home But in Greece the under representation of women in educational leadership has received limited attention Why are there so few women in educational leadership How are leadership and gender constructed by men and women head teachers and teachers Are the perceptions of men and women different and gendered What is the future for women in leadership in Greece Emmy Papanastasiou uses qualitative data from interviews with men and women head teachers and teachers in Greece and analyzes them using a feminist social constructionist framework to provide some answers to these key questions In doing so the book sheds light on social cultural and political factors that influence women s potential advancement in educational leadership

What Women Want From Work Ruth Woodfield, 2007-10-23 Despite improvements women remain concentrated in particular occupational sectors and roles Are current patterns a function of external limitations on initial ambitions or do women simply prefer distinct types of work There is a wealth of literature relating to gendered occupational segregation but comparatively little accounting for how work choices are made from the individual s perspective Including case studies of firefighting and teaching this book offers a qualitative exploration of girls and women s reported journeys toward their work choices
