Consumerism In World History:

Consumerism in World History Peter N. Stearns, 2001 The desire to acquire luxury goods and leisure services is a basic force in modern life Consumerism in World History explores both the historical origins and worldwide appeal of this relatively modern phenomenon Consumerism in World History draws on recent research of the consumer experience in the West and Japan while also examining societies such as Africa less renowned for consumerism Raising new issues about change and continuity in Western history and discussing specific societies in World history the book presents Human societies before consumerism and how they have changed The origins of modern consumerism in western society Consumerism in Russia East Asia Africa and the Islamic Middle East Contemporary issues and evaluations of consumerism This ground breaking study is a fascinating exploration of the world in which we live and is compulsive reading for the general reader and students alike

Consumerism in World History Peter N. Stearns, 2001 The desire to acquire luxury goods and leisure services is a basic force in modern life This second edition of Consumerism in World History draws on recent research and explores both the historical origins and world wide appeal of this modern phenomenon

Global Trade and the Transformation of Consumer Cultures Beverly Lemire, 2018-01-11 The oceanic explorations of the 1490s led to countless material innovations worldwide and caused profound ruptures Beverly Lemire explores the rise of key commodities across the globe and charts how cosmopolitan consumption emerged as the most distinctive feature of material life after 1500 as people and things became ever more entangled She shows how wider populations gained access to more new goods than ever before and through industrious labour and smuggling acquired goods that heightened comfort redefined leisure and widened access to fashion Consumption systems shaped by race and occupation also emerged Lemire reveals how material cosmopolitanism flourished not simply in great port cities like Lima Istanbul or Canton but increasingly in rural settlements and coastal enclaves The book uncovers the social economic and cultural forces shaping consumer behaviour as well as the ways in which consumer goods shaped and defined empires and communities

Documents in World History Peter N. Stearns, Stephen Spencer Gosch, Erwin Peter Grieshaber, 2003 This biography traces the career of Frenchman Jacques Coeur royal official merchant and financier amidst war and exploration in fifteenth century Europe and invites readers to consider Coeur s career against a broad historical context

The Persuasion Industries Steven McKeivitt, 2018-08-08 At the end of the twentieth century Britain was a consumer society Commerce intoxicating and addictive had almost entirely colonized modern life People were immersed in and ultimately defined by promotional culture The things they consumed had overtaken class religion geography or occupation as the primary form of self identity and self expression For much of the twentieth century all forms of brand communication from political campaigning to product advertising were based on the theory of rational appeals to rational consumers There was only one problem with this theory it was wrong The Persuasion Industries The Making of Modern Britain examines develops in marketing advertising public relations and branding It explores the role they played in the emergence of the consumer society New ideas from fields of behavioural psychology and economics together with internal developments such as planning positioning and corporate branding allowed persuasion to become the driving force within many commercial enterprises Together these changes led to the emergence of an alternative emotional model of brand communication A simple idea that proved so compelling it changed the world we live in

World History in Brief Peter N. Stearns, 2007 With its brief global rather than West centered approach World History in Brief Sixth Edition seeks to show how different civilizations developed in a global context Rather than overwhelm students the chief goal of World History in Brief is to present the big picture to facilitate comparison and assessment of change and to highlight the major developments in the world s history This text also emphasizes the global interactions of major civilizations so that students can compare and assess changes in the patterns of interaction and the impact of global forces such as migration and technology exchange The compact size of this text gives instructors the opportunity to take advantage of additional supplementary readings

No Rising Tide Joerg Rieger, 2009-09-24 Economics has always had a moral dimension even free market mascot Adam Smith was a Christian minister Yet recent events have renewed and recast theological reflection on the economy as the gospel of prosperity succumbs to large scale economic crisis In that light Joerg Rieger explores the many dimensions of today s economic crisis What are the fundamental shifts taking place in the global economy today and how are they affecting provision for basic human needs economic equity and people s prospects

The Journal of Markets & Morality, 2007 Hoover, Conservation, and Consumerism Kendrick A. Clements, 2000 To some extent Hoover s policies anticipated directions that would be pursued by modern environmentalists The National Conference on Outdoor Recreation brought together wilderness advocates and urban planners and passage of the first federal law to limit oil pollution in navigable waters marked the beginning of an ongoing effort to control the effects of industrialization on the environment Hoover s advocacy of pleasant affordable housing introduced the idea that our everyday environment is the starting point for environmental concerns
