Basil Pennington, 1972 Bernard of Clairvaux Jean Leclercq, 1973 Aelred of Rievaulx on Love and Order in the World and the Church John R. Sommerfeldt, 2006 The universe is a product of God's infinite love according to the expansive thinking of Aelred of Rievaulx a Cistercian abbot of the Middle Ages Aelred sees human existence order and action as reflections of God's love But Aelred knows that although they have been created for happiness humans are neither perfect nor happy At the same time however he is sure that the flood of God's love can overwhelm people who do not reject this divine gift Because Aelred knows that humans exist only in relationship he searches out the social order necessary for happiness So he explores the nature of the church as a community and the support that each social group or calling gives to the whole of existence This study examines how Aelred sees God informing the cosmos and the humans who inhabit it according to the divine order and principle of love It follows Aelred's analysis of the disordering sources of human unhappiness which happens when humans reject God's love and then investigates Aelred's understanding of God's re-ordering of the human condition through the gifts and graces flowing from his greatest gift his son Jesus BOOK JACKET Aspects of Charity Gert Melville, 2011 Charity as a Christian and in particular also monastic virtue was a complex phenomenon in the Middle Ages The present volume outlines albeit with broad strokes the field of charity in the monastic form of life The collected essays endeavour to approach the subject from different angles which present themselves as especially significant The focus is placed both upon older communities oriented towards separation from the world as well as upon those open to the world and interested in interaction with all people so that insights can be gained into mutual fraternal charity within the convents as well as into charity towards all Additionally the volume attempts to touch upon the wide spectrum of the communication levels of charity Not least attention is given to the pivotal point of charity the systemic embedding of charity between people in the love of man for God which leads to assimilation with Him In doing so the purpose was to draw attention to the fertility of the subject and to outline its importance for the history of the vita religiosa The Acts of the Apostles Through the Centuries Heidi J.
