Ordinary Life and Holiness, Volume 2 Ernst Burkhardt, 2020-06-04 On May 17 1992 Pope John Paul II beatified Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer Ten years later on October 6 2002 he was proclaimed a saint He was chosen by God affirmed the Roman pontiff to announce the universal call to holiness and to indicate that daily life common activities are a path of sanctification It could be said that he was the Saint of the Ordinary On September 14 2005 Pope Benedict XVI blessed a statue of St Josemaría placed on the walls of St Peter's Basilica with the inscription from Sacred Scripture that summarizes his mission of serving the Church Et ego si exaltatus fuero a terra omnes traham ad meipsum And I when I am lifted up from the earth will draw all men to myself John 12:32 St Josemaría understood that with these words Our Lord was telling us if you put me at the heart of all earthly activities by fulfilling the duty of each moment and bear witness to me in what seems big and in what seems small then omnia traham ad meipsum My kingdom among you will become a reality Notes from a meditation preached on October 10 1963 The present work in three volumes is the first attempt to gather together systematically the whole of St Josemaría's message about the sanctification of professional work and all daily life Volume 2 The second volume focuses on St Josemaría's teachings concerning the Christian believer who is called to be alter Christus ipse Christus another Christ Christ himself This volume takes up three themes the sense of divine filiation received at Baptism which provides the foundation of the Christian life the freedom of the children of God and the Christian virtues required for identification with Jesus Christ perfect God and perfect man

The Mysticism of Saint Augustine John Peter Kenney, 2005-09-19 Augustine's vision at Ostia is one of the most influential accounts of mystical experience in the Western tradition and a subject of persistent interest to Christians philosophers and historians This book explores Augustine's account of his experience as set down in the Confessions and considers his mysticism in relation to his classical Platonist philosophy John Peter Kenney argues that while the Christian contemplative mysticism created by Augustine is in many ways founded on Platonic thought Platonism ultimately fails Augustine in that it cannot retain the truths that it anticipates The Confessions offer a response to this impasse by generating two critical ideas in medieval and modern religious thought firstly the conception of contemplation as a purely epistemic event in contrast to classical Platonism secondly the tenet that salvation is absolutely distinct from enlightenment

Divine Audacity Peter S. Dillard,2022-02-24 In Divine Audacity Peter Dillard presents a historically informed and rigorous analysis of the themes of mystical union volition and virtue that occupied several of the foremost theological minds in the late thirteenth and early fourteenth centuries In particular the work of Marguerite Porete raises complex questions in these areas which are further explored by a trio of her near contemporaries Their respective meditations are thoroughly analysed and then skilfully brought into dialogue What emerges from Dillard s synthesis of these voices is a contemporary mystical theology that is rooted in Hugh of Balma s affective approach sharpened through critical engagement with Meister Eckhart s intellectualism and strengthened by crucial insights gleaned from the writings of John Ruusbroec The fresh examination of these thinkers one of whom paid with her life for her radicalism will appeal to philosophers and theologians alike while Dillard s own propositions demand attention from all who concern themselves with the nature of the union between the soul and God
