Constructing Identities Rhetoric Reader:

Constructing Identities Rhetoric Reader Stuart Greene, 1999-08      Building Walls, Constructing Identities Marie-Eve Loiselle, 2024-11-19 States are erecting walls at their borders at a pace unmatched in history and the wall between the United States and Mexico stands as an icon among these dividing structures Much has been said about the US Mexico border wall in the last few decades yet American walling projects have a much longer history dating back almost a century Building Walls Constructing Identities offers a rich account of this legal history informed by two episodes of wall building the Act of August 19 1935 and the Secure Fence Act of 2006 These two legislative periods illustrate that today's wall imprints onto the landscape a grammar of racial inequality underpinned by a settler colonial rationality Marie Eve Loiselle argues in favor of an account of the law that considers its material translation into space and identifies discursive processes by which the law and the wall come together to communicate legal knowledge about territory and identity      Constructing Identities at Work J. Angouri, M. Marra, 2011-12-13 This edited collection presents cutting edge research on the process of identity construction in professional and institutional contexts from corporate workplaces to courtrooms classrooms and academia The chapters consider how interactants do identity work and how identity is indexed often in subtle ways in workplace discourse

Reading, Writing, and the Rhetorics of Whiteness Wendy Ryden, Ian Marshall, 2013-03-01 In this volume Ryden and Marshall bring together the field of composition and rhetoric with critical whiteness studies to show that in our post race era whiteness and racism not only survive but actually thrive in higher education As they examine the effects of racism on contemporary literacy practices and the rhetoric by which white privilege maintains and reproduces itself Ryden and Marshall consider topics ranging from the emotional investment in whiteness to the role of personal narrative in reconstituting racist identities to critiques of the foundational premises of writing programs steeped in repudiation of despised discourses Marshall and Ryden alternate chapters to sustain a multi layered dialogue that traces the rhetorical complexities and contradictions of teaching English and writing in a university setting Their lived experiences as faculty and administrators serve to underscore the complex code of whiteness even as they push to decode it and demonstrate how their own pedagogical practices are raced and racialized in multiple ways Collectively the essays ask instructors and administrators to consider more carefully the pernicious nature of whiteness in their professional activities and how it informs our practices      Social Identity and Sectarianism in the Qumran Movement Jutta Jokiranta, 2012-12-07

Identity and sectarianism two crucial and frequently used concepts on the study of the Qumran movement are problematized praised and redefined in this book Sociology of sectarianism and social identity approach inform the investigation of the serakhim rule documents and pesharim biblical commentaries      Minoritized Women Reading Race and Ethnicity Mitzi J. Smith, Jin Young Choi, 2020-09-24 Nonwhite women primarily appear as marginalized voices if at all in volumes that address constructions of race ethnicity and early Christian texts Employing an intersectional approach the contributors analyze historical cultural literary and ideological constructions of racial ethnic identities which intersect with gender sexuality class religion slavery and or power Given their small numbers in academic biblical studies this book represents a critical mass of nonwhite women scholars and offers a critique of dominant knowledge production Filling a significant epistemological gap this seminal text provides provocative innovative and critical insights into constructions of race ethnicity in ancient and modern texts and contexts

Reading the Rhetoric of Revenge from Jacobean Drama to Milton Danny C. Campbell,2002 In this study of the seventeenth century s fascination with revenge Dr Campbell followed a pathway of evidence that led him to certain conclusions not foreseen at the outset In embarking on the distinct genre of revenge tragedy in the Jacobean period Dr Campbell did not anticipate that he would end up focusing so much on the role of the malcontent or on Milton s role in Writing what amounts to a poetic revenge tragedy in Paradise Lost

Constructing Identities Antonio Medina-Rivera, Lee Wilberschied,2013 The basic concern of border studies is to examine and analyze interactions that occur when two groups come into contact with one another Acculturation and globalization are at the heart of border studies and cultural studies scholars try to describe the possible interactions in terms of conflicts and resolutions that become the result of those possible encounters The present book is a peer reviewed selection of papers presented during the IV Crossing Over Symposium at Cleveland State University held in October 2011 and it is a follow up to our discussion on border studies The main focus of this volume is historical inter national gender and racial borders and the implications that all of them have in the construction of an identity
