supramental consciousness a divine consciousness capable of transforming human nature In Book I he analyzes fundamental questions the problem of evil the dualities of spirit and matter and the role of reason intuition and faith in understanding reality He draws on the Vedic and Vedantic tradition while also engaging with science and philosophy to show that spirit is not opposed to life but seeks to manifest fully within it Profound yet practical The Life Divine offers a vision of human destiny that transcends suffering and limitation It invites readers to see evolution as a journey toward divine life on earth a union of consciousness and matter
