A Free Church Perspective A Study In Ecclesiology:

A Free Church Perspective Stewart A. Newman,1986 Ordained Ministry in Free Church Perspective Jan Martijn Abrahamse,2020-10-12 In Ordained Ministry in Free Church Perspective Jan Martijn Abrahamse presents a constructive theology of ordained ministry by returning to the life and thought of the English Separatist Robert Browne c 1550 1633 This study makes a substantial contribution not only by solving one of the most thorny problems in congregational ecclesiology but also by recovering the legacy of this ecclesial pioneer Through an in depth analysis of Browne s literature the author provides a covenantal theology of ordained ministry in conversation with present day authors Stanley Hauerwas and Kevin Vanhoozer Inspired by the emerging trend of theology of retrieval Abrahamse offers a methodologically innovative way of doing systematic theology in a manner in which voices from the past can be made fruitful for today Not an Easy Journey Walter B. Shurden,2005 Shurden on Baptists Assessments Appreciations Apologies contains articles essays and speeches given by Walter Shurden on Baptists Walter Shurden is a longtime champion of the role of freedom in the Baptist tradition Recognizing that freedom alone does not tell the whole story Shurden also speaks to and from other cardinal Baptist convictions Some of the materials in this volume appear for the first time and consist of speeches and addresses that Shurden has made at crucial points in recent Baptist life in America in the latter part of the twentieth century Especially concerned with the fundamentalist takeover of the Southern Baptist Convention and the resulting lack of emphasis on historic Baptist principles Shurden addresses directly and indirectly the SBC controversy in several of the chapters of this book More Shurden emphasizes what makes Baptists distinctive in American religious life The Eucharist as a Countercultural Liturgy Yik-Pui Au,2017-04-14 Since its institution the Eucharist has been celebrated in all churches regardless of denominational differences Yet its importance should not be just confined to the Christian communities it can have transformational power in the cultural milieu In this book Yik Pui Au argues that the Eucharist can be a countercultural liturgy that upholds the identity and values of Christianity by countering cultural currents that are contrary to the Christian faith Au takes an interdisciplinary approach comprised of church history ritual theory and theology of culture to examine systematically the countercultural functions of the Eucharist interpreted by three modern theologians Henri de Lubac John Zizioulas and Miroslav Volf representing the Catholic Orthodox and Protestant traditions respectively The comparative evaluation of this cross tradition analysis supports Au s argument that even though culture is complex and changing the countercultural function of the Eucharist remains valid Despite its complexity culture can be transformed by the Eucharist and it can also challenge and renew our understanding of the Eucharist She suggests that due to its richness the countercultural function of the Eucharist cannot be exhausted by one tradition It is the task of theologians to help the church continually venture to explore and vivify this function ecumenically Ecclesiology Edwin Charles Dargan,1897 Journal of the South Carolina Baptist Historical Society ,1985 The Unity of the Church Eddy A. J. G. van der Borght,2009 In contrast to its original name Ecclesia Reformata ecclesiology did not develop into a major theme within the Reformed tradition Notwithstanding the undeniable schismatic tendency and the ecclesial embarrassment about disunity the unity of the church did not rise to prominence as a theological topic This volume challenges this traditional low key attitude towards the unity of the church It investigates theological aspects that contributed to a weak sensus unitatis and explores approaches that remedy the disease of division It discusses the role played by scripture the sacraments confessions and discipline it searches for the best theological practices within other Christian traditions it links the unity of the church to the unity of God and reformulates the nature of the church

Brotherhood in Christ Oleksandr Geychenko, 2024-05-31 Traditional evangelical theology with its emphasis on individual responsibility and the independence of faith communities has often failed to offer a robust ecclesial vision for the unity of Christ's church Engaging this reality Dr Oleksandr Geychenko seeks to provide a theological framework for understanding the ecclesiological nature of Ukrainian Baptist church associations He traces the history and development of Baptist unions in Eastern Europe examining associational practices and organisational structure along with the theological language used to describe the role and purpose of such unions In dialogue with the covenant theology of Paul S Fiddes he demonstrates that church associations should be viewed as more than pragmatic entities Rather they are ecclesial bodies embodying covenantal unity committed to mutual care and participation in Christ's mission to the world While drawing from primary sources and ecclesial practices to provide a unique and significant contribution to local theology this study bears relevance for engaging ecumenical relations across traditions and encouraging the unity of the broader global church

Reconciliation in Remembrance of Jesus Christ LIT Verlag, 2023-01-23 Since the Lima Declarations of Convergence in 1982 no other document in the international ecumenical movement has dealt with Eucharistic communion at the celebration of the Lord's Supper in remembrance of the Holy Sacrifice of Jesus Christ On the occasion of the 11th Assembly of the World Council of Churches in 2022 in Karlsruhe ecumenically minded Protestant Free Church Old Catholic Roman Catholic and Orthodox theologians from Germany have taken up this topic afresh They provide insights into the current state of ecumenical conversations present the various traditions of confessional worship and offer practical suggestions for an ecumenically sensitive liturgical practice The German Ecumenical Study Committee D STA contributes a joint statement on the subject Memories of the 3rd Ecumenical Kirchentag Church Congress 2021 in Frankfurt am Main are revived The decision to go to the Lord's Table together trusting in the presence of Jesus Christ in the celebration of Holy Communion Eucharist and Holy Sacrifice can be justified theologically but continues to raise controversy On the Sunday of the Assembly in Karlsruhe September 4 2022 a rich range of liturgies will commemorate the life of Jesus his death for us and the sending of God's Spirit Together all churches testify that The love of Christ moves reconciles and unites the world Hacik Gazer Professor of History and Theology of Eastern Christianity at the University of Erlangen Nrnberg Armenian Apostolic theologian Markus Iff Professor of Systematic Theology and Ecumenics at the Theological

Seminary of Ewersbach pastor in the Federation of Free Evangelical Churches Werner Kl n retired Professor of Church History and Systematic Theology pastor of the Independent Evangelical Lutheran Church Dorothea Sattler Professor of Ecumenical Theology and Dogmatics at the University of Munster Roman Catholic theologian Pentecostalism and Christian Unity Wolfgang Vondey,2010-03-01 This volume of ecumenical documents key texts and critical essays is the first collection of its kind exclusively dedicated to Pentecostalism and its contributions to Christian unity In the first part a cadre of internationally renowned scholars addresses the ecumenical heritage and perspectives of the Pentecostal movement since the early twentieth century Part 2 offers a collection of final reports from international dialogues with Pentecostal participation The final part contains programmatic essays in response to The Nature and Mission of the Church a major study on the doctrine of the church published by the World Council of Churches Most of these essays were first presented by the ecumenical studies group of the Society for Pentecostal Studies currently the only organized ecumenical think tank among Pentecostals in North America Since its formation in 2001 the group has encouraged Pentecostal participation in ecumenical concerns has hosted Roman Catholic Pentecostal conversations at the annual meeting of the Society has invited international scholarly debates on ecumenical matters and has engaged in the study of ecumenical consensus statements The essays and documents in this collection model the dedication and commitment among Pentecostals today that engage the challenges and opportunities of Christian unity from the perspective of a tradition that has often been falsely accused of being anti ecumenical This collection presents an invaluable resource for teachers scholars and pastors interested in engaging the global Christian arena from the worldwide and ecumenical image of Pentecostalism Contributors Carmelo E Alvarez Harold D Hunter Douglas Jacobsen Veli Matti Karkkainen Frank D Macchia Raymond R Pfister Cecil M Robeck Jr Paul van der Laan Wolfgang Vondey Gathered on the Road to Zion Daniel Lee Hill,2021-04-26 Churches are filled with human beings It is as a community of human creatures that the church gathers together on Sunday mornings to worship the triune God and it is as a community of creatures that its members participate in the church s liturgical life However merely noting that the church and human beings are related to one another leaves the nature of this relationship unresolved and undefined And this raises an important question How should the doctrine of the church inform our understanding of what it means to be human This project is an exercise in ecclesio anthropology albeit from a Free Church perspective In it Daniel Lee Hill seeks to discover how the nature practices mission and telos of the church robustly inform our understanding of the human creature

Churches in the mirror Kobus Schoeman,2020-01-01 Ecclesiology is the study of the church and has two focal points the one is the historical and doctrinal perspective on the church and the other is the church as situated in a local context in the sense of the local practices of actual congregations The ecclesiology or more correctly the ecclesiologies of this volume mainly focuses on the second aspect i e understanding the local congregation or parish as a community of believers A congregation may firstly be described by posing a theological question What is the local missional church or congregation all about This question may be answered from different perspectives but it remains essential to answer it from a theological perspective The first five chapters in this book focus mainly on a theological understanding of the congregation This is done from different disciplines within the study field of theology Congregations are secondly social realities and should be described and analysed through an analytical or empirical lens or to answer the question attached to the first empirical descriptive task of practical theology What is going on The remaining chapters use a quantitative and qualitative lens and give an empirical analysis of the congregation The intention is to critically reflect on the church and congregations ecclesiology from a theological and analytical perspective with an emphasis on the South African context It wants to map markers for the development of contemporary ecclesiologies and the different chapters are meant as mirrors to look in and reflect on the theological and contextual relevance of denominations and congregations in South Africa
