A Guest Of Honour:

A Guest of Honour Nadine Gordimer, 2002-10-07 Brilliant and shocking novel set in South Africa by the Nobel Prize winner

Nadine Gordimer Dominic Head, 1994-11-10 The award to Nadine Gordimer of the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1991 was an affirmation of her distinctive contribution to twentieth century fiction and to the creation of a literature that challenges apartheid In this study which may be used as an introduction as well as by those already familiar with Gordimer's work Dominic Head discusses each of her novels in detail paying close attention to the texts both as a reflection of events and situations in the real world and as evidence of her constant rethinking of her craft Head shows how Gordimer's concerns apparent in her earliest novels are developed through increasing stress on the politics of textuality and he pursues the implications of this development to consider how Gordimer's later work contributes to postmodernist fiction and to a recentering of political engagement in an era of uncertainty

Human Rights and Nadine Gordimer's Fiction Mateti Prabhakar, Kanugula Ram Mohan, 2024-07-02 The book explores the complex problem of apartheid racial segregation in South African society and the struggle against the colour bar represented in the fictional world of Nadine Gordimer the Nobel Laureate of the South African Letters It shows how Gordimer a crusader for the human rights of black people has launched a lifetime battle against the apartheid regime's unjust and heartless censorship of creative writing and freedom of speech in South Africa by virtue of fictionalizing her human rights activism thereby teaching humanity It demonstrates how black people are denied their basic human rights from the cradle to the grave by the white chauvinistic apartheid regime This volume is a space for scholars writers and activists to debate issues related to race class and human rights application of protocol It is not designed as a complete guide to all the rules of protocol but it describes how to translate the context into a tailor made protocol for each meeting or event The book explains protocol as a flexible method to handle unique situations Protocol is presented on four levels the why of protocol the strategic and tactical level the practical implementation and the execution of protocol Protocol to Manage Relationships Today is written by Europe s foremost protocol experts with collective years of experience with the management of networking meetings and events at the highest level

Branding Books Across the Ages Helleke van den Braber, Jeroen Dera, Jos Joosten, Maarten Steenmeijer, 2021-04-20 As marketing specialists know all too well our experience of products is prefigured by brands trademarks that identify a product and differentiate it from its competitors This process of branding has hitherto gained little academic discussion in the field of literary studies Literary authors and the texts they produce though are constantly branded from the early modern period onwards they have been both the object and the initiator of a complex marketing process This book analyzes this branding process throughout the centuries focusing on the case of the Netherlands To what extent is our experience of Dutch literature prefigured by brands and what role does branding play when introducing European authors in the Dutch literary field or vice versa By answering these questions the volume seeks to show how literary scholars can account for the phenomenon of branding
