A Guide For The Married Man:

A GUIDE FOR THE MARRIED MAN FRANK TARLOFF,1967 A Guide for the Married Man, as Told to Frank Tarloff Frank Tarloff,1967 A Guide for the Married Man (or) Every Man's Guide to a Bit on the Side, as Told to Frank Tarloff Frank Tarloff,1967 Screen World Presents the Encyclopedia of Hollywood Film Actors: From the silent era to 1965 Barry Monush,2003 Applause Books For decades Screen World has been the film professional s as well as the film buff s favorite and indispensable annual screen resource full of all the necessary statistics and facts Now Screen World editor Barry Monush has compiled another comprehensive work for every film lover s library In the first of two volumes this book chronicles the careers of every significant film actor from the earliest silent screen stars Chaplin Pickford Fairbanks to the mid 1960s when the old studio and star systems came crashing down Each listing includes a brief biography photos from the famed Screen World archives with many rare shots vital statistics a comprehensive filmography and an informed entertaining assessment of each actor s contributions good or bad In addition to every major player Monush includes the legions of unjustly neglected troupers of yesteryear The result is a rarity an invaluable reference tool that s as much fun to read as a scandal sheet It pulsates with all the scandal glamour oddity and glory that was the lifeblood of its subjects Contains over 1 000 photos From El Dorado to Lost Horizons Ken Windrum,2019-03-25 The era known as the Hollywood Renaissance is celebrated as a time when revolutionary movies broke all the rules of the previous classical era as part of the ferment of the late 1960s and early 1970s Yet many films during this era did not overtly smash the system but provided more traditional entertainment based on popular genres for a wider audience than the youth culture who flocked to more transgressive fare Ken Windrum focuses on four genres of traditionalist movies big budget musicals war spectacles naughty sex comedies and Westerns From El Dorado to Lost Horizons shows how even seemingly innocuous family oriented films still participated in the progressive aspects of the time while also holding a conservative point of view Windrum analyzes representations of issues including gender roles marriage sexuality civil rights and Cold War foreign policy revealing how these films dealt with changing times and reflected both status quo positions and new attitudes He also examines how the movies continued or deviated from classical principles of structure and style Windrum provides a counter history of the Hollywood Renaissance by focusing on a group of important films that have nevertheless been neglected in scholarly accounts A Musical Biography of John Williams , Cue ,1977 Gene Kelly Earl J. Hess,Pratibha A. Dabholkar,2020-10-02 Whether as a curiosity or a beloved idol Gene Kelly 1912 1996 lives on in our cultural memory as a fantastic dancer in MGM musicals especially Singin in the Rain But dancing however extraordinary was only one of his many gifts This book for the first time offers a full picture of Gene Kelly as the Renaissance man he actually was dancer yes but also choreographer actor clown singer director teacher and mentor Kelly was star of radio and television as well as film avant garde as artist and auteur but also ahead of the curve in opening the world of dance to differences of race ethnicity and gender Gene Kelly The Making of a Creative Legend takes us from Kelly's youth in Depression era Pittsburgh through his years on Broadway and ascendance to stardom in Hollywood. Authors Hess and Dabholkar pay particular attention to his work with the US Navy solo directing and lesser known but considerable accomplishments in television radio and on the stage in later years. The book gives us a rare inside look at Kelly's relationships with dancing partners and peers from Leslie Caron Vera Ellen and Cyd Charisse to Fred Astaire and at his directorial collaboration with Stanley Donen and Vincent Minnelli and at his solo directing. The authors show us significant but little examined facets of Kelly's character and career such as the political convictions that got him graylisted in Hollywood his passion for creating cine dance and serving as an ambassador of dance in America and his forging of links between dance civil rights and the common man. Steeped in research and replete with photographs this career biography uniquely encompasses all phases of Gene Kelly's life and work and finally gives us a full portrait of this central figure in the history of the film musical during Hollywood's Golden Age.

Drive-in Dream Girls Tom Lisanti, 2003-01-01. During the 1960s a bushel of B movies were produced and aimed at the predominantly teenage drive in movie audience. At first teens couldn't get enough of the bikini clad beauties dancing on the beach or being wooed by Elvis Presley but by 1966 young audiences became more interested in the mini skirted go go boot wearing independent minded gals of spy spoofs hot rod movies and biker flicks. Profiled herein are fifty sexy young actresses that teenage girls envied and teenage boys desired including Quinn O'Hara Melody Patterson Hilarie Thompson Donna Loren Pat Priest Meredith MacRae Arlene Martel Cynthia Pepper and Beverly Washburn. Some like Sue Ane Langdon Juliet Prowse Marlyn Mason and Carole Wells appeared in major studio productions while others such as Regina Carroll Susan Hart Angelique Pettyjohn and Suzie Kaye were relegated to drive in movies only. Each biography contains a complete filmography. Some also include the actresses candid comments and anecdotes about their films the people they worked with and their feelings about acting. A list of web sites that provide further information is also included.
