

THE EARLY CHRISTIAN CREED

- When was Jesus crucified?
- Scholars say around AD 30-33. Paul is writing 1 Corinthians around AD 51-55.
- "The two earliest biographies of Alexander the Great were written by Arrian and Plutarch more than four hundred years after Alexander's death in 323 B.C., yet historians consider them to be generally trustworthy." (Blomberg in The Case for Christ)
- 3 For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, 4 that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, 5 and that he appeared to Cephas, and then to the Twelve. 6 After that, he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers and sisters at the same time, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. 7 Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles, 8 and last of all he appeared to me also, as to one abnormally born (1 Cor 15:3-7. NIV)
- "If the Crucifixion was as early as A.D. 30, Paul's conversion was about 32. Immediately Paul was ushered into Damascus, where he met with a Christian named Ananias and some other disciples. His first meeting with the apostles in Jerusalem would have been about A.D. 35. At some point along there, Paul was given this creed, which had already been formulated and was being used in the early church." (Blomberg in The Case for Christ).

Thomas Drummond Wanliss, 1906 The Early Creeds John Williamson Nevin, Philip Schaff, John Williams Proudfit, 2020-07-29 This volume is a collection of essays on the early creeds by John Nevin and Philip Schaff the two principal representatives of the Mercersburg Theology that was birthed in nineteenth century Pennsylvania It also contains a critical response by John Proudfit a more traditionally scholastic Calvinist In these essays Nevin and Schaff argued that the early creeds provide an indispensable lens through which the Bible should be interpreted and an essential bond to preserve the unity of the church through the centuries According to these Mercersburg theologians the liturgical and confessional use of the early creeds is crucial for shaping the identity of Christians and mediating the life of Christ to believers Nevin and Schaff's enthusiasm for the creeds was a function of their understanding of Christianity as an evolving tradition the Christian life as growth in Christ likeness the church as the nurturing body of Christ and the sacraments as conduits of Christ's vivifying personhood These convictions stood in sharp contrast to the credal sensibilities of most nineteenth century American Protestants who emphasized the sufficiency of Scripture alone the church as a gathered community of like minded individuals dramatic conversion experiences and the direct presence of Christ to the individual soul
