Butters,2002 In early twentieth century motion picture houses offensive stereotypes of African Americans were as predictable as they were prevalent Watermelon eating chicken thievery savages with uncontrollable appetites Sambo and Zip Coon were all representations associated with African American people Most of these caricatures were rendered by whites in blackface Few people realize that from 1915 through 1929 a number of African American film directors worked diligently to counter such racist definitions of black manhood found in films like D W Griffith s The Birth of a Nation the 1915 epic that glorified the Ku Klux Klan In the wake of the film s phenomenal success
