Backyard Landscaper:

There's a Bobcat in My Backyard Jonathan Hanson, 2015-11-01 Bobcats in your backyard Javelinas tromping through your landscaping Or maybe a packrat has found its way into the vent of your clothes dryer and decided to call it home Human residents of the Sonoran Desert are sometimes not completely comfortable when confronted by the wild creatures with whom they share this fragile habitat But have no fear please Not only do these critters mean you no harm they can also be a source of immense delight In this entertaining guidebook naturalist Jonathan Hanson introduces readers to the satisfaction of attracting and enjoying desert wildlife Whether your home is deep within the city limits or on what is currently the edge of human settlement you can turn your backyard into a miniature wildlife refuge by providing a simple combination of food water and habitat An appropriately landscaped yard can become a home for a bevy of birds beasts and bugs while even a condo patio can attract colorful hummingbirds and butterflies Hanson advises you on what kind of birdseed to put out to attract the most interesting avian species how to tell the difference between rabbits and jackrabbits and when to worry about roving reptiles which really isn't all that often He'll even help you pick out a pair of binoculars to heighten your enjoyment Not all desert creatures offer people a positive experience and Hanson tells how to cope with those that are sometimes considered pests whether it's the Gila woodpecker announcing its presence on your roof at five in the morning the rattlesnake slithering unconcerned across your porch the coyote running amok with a taste for wandering housecats or the aforementioned woodrat homesteading in a major appliance or car engine From bears to bees to creepy crawlies scorpions spiders and the like he lets you know when you need to be cautious and when you simply need to give a wild animal its space If you live in the desert you're part of the desert This book generously laced with humor and brimming with helpful information can turn you from a mere bystander into an active participant in an environment in which we all people and wildlife must coexist
