Boca de sapo Canela,2019-02-01 Canela nos presenta dos historias ocurrentes y profundas y nos conmueve una vez más con su gran talento para crear personajes inolvidables Juan Lencina es un amable repartidor de leche con una vida tranquila Hasta que sin motivo aparente empieza a largar sapos por la boca S como leen SAPOS Y entonces Lencina se convierte de pronto en la sensación del pueblo De la se orita Helen se sabe bastante poco Vive sola es profesora de inglés y los fines de semana le gusta amasar fideos aunque no tenga a quien invitar para comer Pero un día la masa se le va de las manos Ilustrado por Marcelo Elizalde The Amazon Provinces of Peru, as a Field for European Emigration Herbert Guillaume,1888 Camping Among Cannibals Alfred St. Johnston,1888 Forests and sustainable cities Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2018-05-18 Stories from 15 cities show that investing in green solutions can pay significant dividends and increase the liveability of urban environments Dictionary of Trees, Volume 2: South America M.M. Grandtner,Julien Chevrette,2013-09-21 Dictionary of South American Trees provides a single source reference for botanists biologists ecologists and climatologists on the many native trees in South America The index lets readers find a tree in four languages by its common name or abbreviation followed by taxonomy that includes common uses for each part of the tree Using this information scientists and students can identify and classify plants their growth structure and environment the uses of their products and alternative options with similar characteristics Complete coverage of all native South American trees the only single source reference for botanists biologists ecologists and climatologists working in this diverse and changing region Includes taxonomy at genera species sub species and varietal levels providing information from the most basic level up and allowing readers to identify their subjects using numerous criteria Indicates Latin English French and Spanish names as well as common names and abbreviations facilitating accurate and efficient identification Provides growth information climatology ecology and uses for the tree to provide insight into each tree as well as for comparative purposes when seeking similar tree based resources Making Waves Anniversary Volume Ann Davies,Parvathi Kumaraswami,Claire Williams,2021-02-10 Gender and women's studies have formed part of the academic landscape for many years but while the field is now established enough to have developed in depth and perspectives there remain many areas of significance yet to be explored most significantly much of the work carried out has remained rooted in the Anglo American context Those working outside this context are increasingly aware of the need to understand women in different cultural contexts in order to determine whether to what extent and how representations of women and cultural contexts are interactive and dynamic concepts The current volume contributes to the growing interest in the field of women and culture in the Hispanic and Lusophone worlds and shows how women writers researchers teachers and students have always made waves to counteract the complacency prejudice and tradition that threatens to ignore or subsume them The volume draws on literary study the starting point for much of the early work on gender in Spain the Lusophone world and Latin America but also goes beyond it to discuss women's interaction not only with literature but also with art and language itself in the Hispanic and Lusophone contexts. It acts as a showcase for contemporary scholarship undertaken in Hispanic and Lusophone gender studies, developing earlier insights and forging new ones to refine the debate continuing in the subject. The contributors include both established scholars with a proven track record and promising newcomers to the field. The volume arises from the individual research projects and sustained discussions of Women in Spanish Portuguese and Latin American Studies WiSPs, an organisation that exists to promote scholarship by and about women in the field of Iberian Lusophone and Latin American Studies. This volume celebrates the first seven years of WiSPs's life and presents some of the research presented under its auspices at annual conferences and study days.
