Body Images Embodiment As Intercorporeality:

Body Images Gail Weiss,1999 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Body Images Gail Weiss,1999-01 This book examines the many forces that contribute to the ongoing construction deconstruction and reconstruction of body images Drawing on relevant discussions of embodiment in phenomenology feminist theory psychoanalytic theory queer theory and post colonial theory Body Images explores the role played by the body image in our everyday existence http://www.loc.gov/catdir/enhancements/fy0651/98003799_d.html 50 Concepts for a Critical Phenomenology Gail Weiss, Gayle Salamon, Ann V. Murphy, 2019-11-15 Phenomenology the philosophical method that seeks to uncover the taken for granted presuppositions habits and norms that structure everyday experience is increasingly framed by ethical and political concerns Critical phenomenology foregrounds experiences of marginalization oppression and power in order to identify and transform common experiences of injustice that render the familiar a site of oppression for many In Fifty Concepts for a Critical Phenomenology leading scholars present fresh readings of classic phenomenological topics and introduce newer concepts developed by feminist theorists critical race theorists disability theorists and queer and trans theorists that capture aspects of lived experience that have traditionally been neglected By centering historically marginalized perspectives the chapters in this book breathe new life into the phenomenological tradition and reveal its ethical social and political promise This volume will be an invaluable resource for teaching and research in continental philosophy feminist gender and sexuality studies critical race theory disability studies cultural studies and critical theory more generally Pain without Boundaries: Inquiries across Cultures Roy F. Fox, Nicole Monteiro, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 From medicine to music from art to medical humanities from psychology to writing and rhetoric these chapters explore pain what it is how it affects us how we think about it how we express it and how we can transform it Using diverse methods and points of view these journeys into pain are divided into four sections In Section I Pain and Thinking the authors focus on fundamental thinking processes when experiencing and communicating about pain Section II Contemplating Pain addresses the different ways that we reflect upon the nature of pain itself Offering responses to the fundamental question What do we do with pain the collective answer in Section III Creating from Pain is that we construct something from it that we use pain as material for creative acts Finally in Section IV Personalizing Pain the authors explore pain within the boundaries of our personal selfhood Body/Self/Other Luna Dolezal, Danielle Petherbridge, 2017-07-25 Examines the lived experience of social encounters drawing on phenomenological insights Body Self Other brings together a variety of phenomenological perspectives to examine the complexity of social encounters across a range of social political and ethical issues It investigates the materiality of social encounters and the habitual attitudes that structure lived experience In particular the contributors examine how constructions of race gender sexuality criminality and medicalized forms of subjectivity affect perception and social interaction Grounded in practical everyday experiences this book provides a theoretical framework that considers the extent to which fundamental ethical obligations arise from the fact of individuals intercorporeality and sociality The National Body in Mexican Literature Rebecca Janzen,2016-04-08 The National Body in Mexican Literature presents a revisionist reading of the Mexican canon that challenges assumptions of State hegemony and national identity It analyzes the representation of sick disabled and miraculously healed bodies in Mexican literature from 1940 to 1980 in narrative fiction by Vicente Le ero Juan Rulfo among others Women, Body, Illness Pamela Moss,Isabel Dyck,2003-04-14 This provocative and moving work explores concepts of body and space to better understand the daily lives and struggles of women with chronic illness Moss and Dyck show how such women coping with associated notions of illness health and being female restructure their physical and social environments through the strategies they choose to accommodate disabling illnesses such as chronic fatigue syndrome multiple sclerosis or rheumatoid arthritis Strategies might include disclosing or concealing illness from employers and friends seeking or rejecting emotional support through old friends and new contacts and pursuing or resisting specific diagnoses from the biomedical community Featuring a wealth of original research and personal stories Women Body Illness tells the tales of chronically ill women forging networks of support redefining themselves and challenging what it is to be ill The Human as the Other Matthew Rukgaber,2025-02-20 Philosophical anthropology investigates what makes us human but it has produced accounts that exclude some members of our species It relies often on non naturalistic philosophies of consciousness that locate humanity in the cognitive capacity to objectively represent things to reason teleologically and use tools to use symbols and language or to be self conscious and question existence This work pursues an alternative thoroughly naturalistic philosophical anthropology by combining Arnold Gehlen s theory of our behaviorally detached and institutionally structured impulses with Maurice Merleau Ponty s views on intersubjectivity affect sexuality and social institutions It locates the human within the unique structure of our capacity for feeling which produces an inclusive account of the human as the other or Homo alter Humans are deeply and thoroughly dependent on affective bodily communicative bonds in which other humans appear as sources of pleasure communicative meaning institutional norms and interpersonal approbation and disapprobation However this socio biological account of the human denies that human nature alone can prescribe the necessary form of institutions such as the home which is a criticism of any potential political anthropology A result of this focus on our social and affective natures is a novel account of shame as a response to institutional and interpersonal exclusion Failing to recognize humanity within our dependency on others and the structure of feeling is a widespread problem in philosophy and society in general that contributes to the social and metaphysical exclusion of disabled persons who might lack certain forms of consciousness and cognition Reimagining philosophical anthropology as the study of the unique way that human beings are socially present to one another this work challenges such dehumanization Eurydice's Body Liz Locke,2000 The Body and Desire in Contemporary Irish Poetry Irene Gilsenan Nordin,2006 The essays in this collection deal with contemporary Irish poetry and the question of the desiring body as a cultural and historical product a biological entity and a psycho sexual construction and not least as an existential being Drawing upon the literary theories of among others the French post structuralists the psychoanalytic theories of Lacan and Kristeva the philosophies of Merleau Ponty and Levinas and feminist philosophers such as Donna Haraway and Susan Bordo The contributors explore how contemporary Irish poets both male and female give expression to what might be termed a reassessment of material experience With their various approaches they address the various ways in which the body can be seen as an agent of empowerment and change in the work of Eavan Boland Ciaran Carson Mary Dorcey Seamus Heaney Rita Ann Higgins Thomas Kinsella Michael Longley Derek Mahon Medbh McGuckian Paula Meehan John Montague Paul Muldoon Eilean Ni Chuilleanain and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill

Environment & Planning ,2009 Feminist Studies ,1999 The Life of Brian Heather Worth,Anna Paris,Louisa Allen,2002 This collection of ten essays grew from a July 2000 conference on masculinities held at the University of Auckland bringing together an international group of academics to share ideas and recent developments in theorising and working within the area of masculinities The essays examine ways in which the contemporary embodiment of masculinity is experienced how it has changed from previous generations the diversity encompassed within the contemporary masculine experience including the contradictions differences and hopes for the future accompanying this diversity and the implications for men s health and sexuality

The Culture of Corporeality Stefan Leonhard Brandt,2007 The Culture of Corporeality outlines a cultural history of the body in the American postwar years 1945 1960 based on contemporary critical theory and exemplified by a variety of films literary works and other documents The book argues that the body as a cultural symbolic and lived

The Journal of Speculative Philosophy William Torrey Harris,2000

Art and Essence Stephen Davies,Ananta Charana Sukla,2003-10-30 This exceptional new collection comprises 13 new essays on the nature and definability of art Presenting a wide offering of contemporary philosophical perspectives including theoretical historical cross cultural and evolutionary Art and Essence offers thorough critical discussion on the extensive contemporary philosophical literature on the subject The work here contrasts the idea of theorizing about why we make and consume art with that of defining it furthermore the authors consider the possibility that art has no definable essence and discusses differences and connections between art and nature More historical chapters focus on ancient and medieval approaches to art while others discuss the work of philosophers such as Hume Kant and Nietzsche Non Western cultures cultivated their own distinctive art practices and philosophies as discussed in chapters on India and Japan and contemporary philosophers have added their own unique perspectives The authors are among the leading philosophers on the subjects they cover making Art and Essence an invaluable tool for scholars of a wide variety of fields

The Gendered Newsroom Louise North, 2008 The Gendered Newsroom is a vivid exploration of the gendered production of news and in particular the experiences of women in the Australian print news media The book engages with the question of how gender shapes newsroom culture and in so doing is concerned with production practices and cultural processes It considers the dilemmas constraints negotiations and compromises which shape journalists day to day routines It probes specific questions about gender in asking what is journalism and what is a journalist How is newsroom culture embodied How do female journalists experience newsroom culture How has global industry change impacted on the workplace and what does this mean for journalists How does feminism get played out in the newsroom And what is the relationship of newsroom culture to the content of the news The author's astute empirical research provides a distinctive account of how Australian print news media journalists experience newsroom culture The 17 in depth interviews with journalists ranging in age and industry experience reveal a complex culture coming to terms with dramatic industry changes
