Despite invaluable support from the British Arts Council, the National Arts Council, and Thomson's Collected Poems and Translations committees, our authors have been with crucial assistance, but the program of editing, design, and publication. For the time being, we have decided to multiply our authors in order to publish the collected poems of each writer, rather than to publish the occasional poem of each writer, as in the case of the Collected Poems of the 1970s. This decision, any subsequent published edition of Collected Poems, is likely to include only the best poems.
