Cosmology and Cosmopolitanism

Città di Castello, Italy, July 10 – 28, 2023

The Collegium Phaenomenologicum will convene for its 4th annual session in Città di Castello, Italy, July 10–28, 2023. The Collegium is intended for faculty members and advanced graduate and postdoctoral students in philosophy and related disciplines. The core of the program consists in a series of lecture courses, individual lectures, and intensive text-based seminars. A participant's conference will be held in conjunction with the Collegium on July 8–9.

Theme: 'Cosmology' and 'Cosmopolitanism' name two of our most familiar metaphysical horizons for coming to understand what it means to be—and thus also how to live as—a human being. Cosmology names the predominantly Ancient notion by which we understand ourselves in virtue of our place in a larger cosmos. Cosmopolitanism here names the Modern metaphysical commitment to understanding human beings as, principally, beings on a finite globe. With this shift in philosophical thinking comes a decisive turn in forming the possibilities for human life. This Collegium will not only trace the meaning of this arc, but also ask how we may think about the relationship between the cosmos and the polis in how we give order to our lives.
