Collision and Collusion Janine R. Wedel, 2024-08-06 When the Soviet Union's communist empire collapsed in 1989 a mood of euphoria took hold in the West and in Eastern Europe The West had won the ultimate victory it had driven a silver stake through the heart of Communism Its next planned step was to help the nations of Eastern Europe to reconstruct themselves as democratic free market states and full partners in the First World Order But that as Janine Wedel reveals in this gripping volume was before Western governments set their poorly conceived programs in motion Collision and Collusion tells the bizarre and sometimes scandalous story of Western governments attempts to aid the former Soviet block He shows how by mid decade Western aid policies had often backfired effectively discouraging market reforms and exasperating electorates who remarkably had voted back in the previously despised Communists Collision and Collusion is the first book to explain where the Western dollars intended to aid Eastern Europe went and why they did so little to help Taking a hard look at the bureaucrats politicians and consultants who worked to set up Western economic and political systems in Eastern Europe the book details the extraordinary costs of institutional ignorance cultural misunderstanding and unrealistic expectations

Collision Or Collusion? The Congress, the President, and the Ambiguity of War Powers William Montgomery Raymond (Jr), 1993 I examine the interactions between a president and members of Congress during foreign policy crises involving the use of American forces and I address the questions Why do members of Congress continually assert their constitutional rights on war powers yet acquiesce to executive encroachment of those same rights Why do presidents and members of Congress perpetuate the ambiguity about war powers To explore the impact of the War Powers Resolution WPR on executive congressional relations I compare two U S interventions that occurred before its passage Lebanon 1958 and Dominican Republic 1965 to two that occurred after Mayaguez 1975 and Grenada 1983 I also examine four non interventions Dien Bien Phu 1954 Pueblo 1968 Angola 1975 and Nicaragua 1980s to consider whether the WPR has had a restraining influence on presidents and to identify those factors in a crisis that distinguish an intervention from a non intervention
