The Trespass of the Sign Kevin Hart, 1991-08-30 The Trespass of the Sign offers an account of the relations between deconstruction and theology Kevin Hart argues that contrary to popular thought on the topic deconstruction does not have an antitheological agenda Rather deconstruction seeks to question the metaphysics of any theology Hart pays particular attention to mystical theology as nonmetaphysical theology From publisher s description Accessions Victoria and Albert Museum. Simplified Signs: A Manual Sign-Communication System for Special Populations, Volume 1. John D. Bonvillian, Nicole Kissane Lee, Tracy T. Dooley, Filip T. Loncke, 2020-07-30 Simplified Signs presents a system of manual sign communication intended for special populations who have had limited success mastering spoken or full sign languages It is the culmination of over twenty years of research and development by the authors The Simplified Sign System has been developed and tested for ease of sign comprehension memorization and formation by limiting the complexity of the motor skills required to form each sign and by ensuring that each sign visually resembles the meaning it conveys Volume 1 outlines the research underpinning and informing the project and places the Simplified Sign System in a wider context of sign usage historically and by different populations Volume 2 presents the lexicon of signs totalling approximately 1000 signs each with a clear illustration and a written description of how the sign is formed as well as a memory aid that connects the sign visually to the meaning that it conveys While the Simplified Sign System originally was developed to meet the needs of persons with intellectual disabilities cerebral palsy autism or aphasia it may also assist the communication needs of a wider audience such as healthcare professionals aid workers military personnel travellers or parents and children who have not yet mastered spoken language The system also has been shown to enhance learning for individuals studying a foreign language Lucid and comprehensive this work constitutes a valuable resource that will enhance the communicative interactions of many different people and will be of great interest to researchers and educators alike At the Sign of the Silver Flagon Benjamin Leopold Farjeon, 1875 *The complete works of Charles Dickens, ed. by F.G. Migration as a Sign of the Times Judith Gruber, Sigrid Rettenbacher, 2015-06-24 Migrations are contested sites of identity negotiations they are not simply a process of border crossings but more so of border shiftings Rather than allowing migrants to swiftly move across stable borders from one clearly defined identity to another migrations question and renegotiate these very identities Migrations undermine and re establish borders along which the identity of migrants and also that of the supposedly settled population are constituted and as a discourse migrations serve as a contested site of negotiating identities Migrations reveal the negotiable character of identities and representations of migration are themselves a hotspot in contemporary identity constructions What can theology contribute to the negotiations on migration The contributions of this volume work towards a reading of migration as a sign of the times Together they offer steps towards a theology of migration They show that migration calls for a new way of doing A theology that is exposed to migration as a sign of the times is drawn into the shifting unsettling and undermining of borders This has impact not only on the discourse of migration but also on the discourse of theology it calls theology to move away from its search for well established definitions literally borders of its God talk and to venture into new uncharted territory It loses its fixed clearly defined grounds and finds itself on the way toward a renegotiation of what it means to believe in celebrate and reflect on YHWH on God who is with us on the way

The Mirror of Language (Revised Edition) Marcia L. Colish,1983-01-01 Early Christianity faced the problem of the human word versus Christ the Word Could language accurately describe spiritual reality The Mirror of Language brilliantly traces the development of one prominent theory of signs from Augustine through Anselm of Canterbury Thomas Aquinas and Dante Their shared epistemology validated human language as an authentic but limited index of preexistent reality both material and spiritual This sign theory could thereby account for the ways men receive know and transmit religious knowledge always mediated through faith Marcia L Colish demonstrates how the three theologians used different branches of the medieval trivium to express a common sign theory Augustine stressed rhetoric Anselm shifted to grammar including grammatical proofs of God s existence and Thomas Aquinas stressed dialectic Dante the one poet included in this study used the Augustinian sign theory to develop a Christian poetics that culminates in the Divine Comedy The author points out not only the commonality but also the sharp contrasts between these writers and shows the relation between their sign theories and the intellectual ferment of the times When first published in 1968 The Mirror of Language was recognized as a pathfinding study This completely revised edition incorporates the scholarship of the intervening years and reflects the refinements of the author s thought Greater prominence is given to the role of Stoicism and sharper attention is paid to some of the thinkers and movements surrounding the major thinkers treated Concerns of semiotics philosophy and literary criticism are elucidated further The original thesis still controversial is now even wider ranging and more salient to current intellectual debate
