Backstrap Weaving:

Weaving on a Backstrap Loom Judy Ziek De Rodriguez, Nona Ziek, 1978      Handweaving Isabel Buschman, 1991

Buschman annotates more than 550 books and periodical titles published on the techniques and history of handweaving from 1928 through October 1989. She includes works on how to weave, basic weaving texts, books on looms and equipment and patterns both for weaving and for woven articles, handweaving history and historic fabrics from around the world, works on Native American weaving ranging from the Chilkats of the Northwest coast of North America to the Pueblos and Navajos of our Southwest, Mexico and Central America, and on through the rich weaving culture of the Andes. Reference works containing specialized bibliographies and information on fibers, dyes, education and marketing and periodicals. With author title and subject indexes.

A Textile Traveler's Guide to Guatemala Deborah Chandler, 2019-04-05. The vibrant character of Guatemala is most visible in its handwoven textiles which are still in everyday use and readily available in native markets all over the country. A Textile Traveler's Guide to Guatemala is an excellent resource for discovering artisans, markets, shops and those storied regional textile traditions. Geared to independent minded travelers, this guide presents the safest and most accessible methods of travel, where and when to go, where to stay and what to eat. Expert advice helps the traveler know what to look for, how to distinguish high quality work and how to bargain intelligently and ethically. With abundant photographs, this guide celebrates the color, joy and energy of folk life in Guatemala.

God and Production in a Guatemalan Town Sheldon Annis, 2010-06-04. Since the late 1970s, Protestantism has emerged as a major force in the political and economic life of rural Guatemala. Indeed, as Sheldon Annis argues in this book, Protestantism may have helped tip Guatemala's guerrilla war in behalf of the army during the early 1980s. But what is it about Protestantism and about Indians that has led to massive religious conversion throughout the highlands? And in villages today, what are the dynamics that underlie the competition between Protestants and Catholics? Sheldon Annis addresses these questions from the perspective of San Antonio Aguas Calientes, an Indian village in the highlands of midwestern Guatemala. Annis skillfully blends economic and cultural analysis to show why Protestantism has taken root. The key character in his drama is the village Indian's tiny plot of corn and beans, the milpa, which Annis analyzes as an idea as well as an agronomic, productive system. By exploring milpa logic, Annis shows how the economic, environmental and social shifts of the twentieth century have acted to undercut the colonial creation of Indianness and in doing so, have laid the basis for new cultural identities.

The Weaving Explorer Deborah Jarchow, Gwen W. Steege, 2019-11-26. Weaving is a highly accessible craft, yet the basic technique is the stumbling block for many would-be weavers. The high cost of a commercial loom has been the barrier, inviting crafters and artists to try out an amazing range of techniques and creative projects that are achievable with a simple homemade loom or no loom at all. The Weaving Explorer removes that barrier, inviting crafters and artists to try out an amazing range of techniques and creative projects that are achievable with a simple homemade loom or no loom at all. Weavers Deborah Jarchow and Gwen W. Steege take inspiration from the world of folk weaving traditions, adding a contemporary spin by introducing an unexpected range of materials and home dec projects. From sturdy rag fabric grocery bags to freeform wire baskets delicately woven thread bracelets to colorful woven rugs crafters will delight in exploring the opportunities to make their own personal variations on these beautiful and functional creations
