Decoding Samara:

Decoding Samara Patrick Deeley,2000 Patrick Deeley s fourth poetry collection uses the imagery of trees to explore human emotions The poems move from mythology the Dryads of the woods the local legends to a suburban landscape where the memories of trees and the presence of timber create an unsettling effect imaging that of the human struggle to make sense of our environment The title signifies coming to understand the relationship with our environment samara being the one seeded fruit with a wing of some trees

Wingspan Pat Boran,2006 Now in its 21st year the Dedalus Press is one of the major poetry imprints in Ireland In Wingspan A Dedalus Sampler poet and publisher Pat Boran presents a selection of recent and new work by 28 Irish and international poets on the Dedalus list among them Fergus Allen Thomas Kinsella Dolores Stewart and Macdara Woods showing something of the range and diversity that is the hallmark of the Dedalus list

The Hurley Maker's Son Patrick Deeley,2016-04-07 Patrick Deeley s train journey home to rural East Galway in autumn 1978 was a pilgrimage of grief his giant of a father had been felled the hurley making workshop silenced From this moment Patrick unfolds his childhood as a series of evocative moments from the intricate workings of the timber workshop run by his father to the slow taking apart of an old tractor and the physical burial of a steam engine from his mother s steady work on an old Singer sewing machine to his father s vertiginous quickstep on the roof of their house There are many wonderful descriptions of the natural world and delightful cameos of characters and incidents from a not so long ago country childhood In a style reminiscent of John McGahern s Memoir Deeley s beautifully paced prose captures the rhythms struggles and rough edges of a rural life that was already dying even as he grew This is an enchanting beautifully written account of family love loss and the unstoppable march of time
