design especially rooms decorated with heavy window curtains Victorian bric a brac and overstuffed furniture They argue that such rooms emphasize upholstery at the expense of proper space planning and architectural design and are therefore uncomfortable and rarely used Wharton and Codman advocated the creation of houses with rooms decorated with strong architectural wall and ceiling treatments accentuated by well suited furniture rooms based on simple classical design principles such as symmetry and proportion and a sense of architectural balance

The Decoration of Houses

,2020-04-29 Thousands of books on interior design have come and gone since the 1897 publication of this pioneering manual but The Decoration of Houses remains thanks to the insightful and inspiring advice of its co authors Before she became the Pulitzer Prize winning author of The Age of Innocence Edith Wharton was a society matron remodeling a summer home in Newport Rhode Island With the able assistance of architect Ogden Codman Jr Wharton assembled this corrective to the rampant vulgarity of her nouveau riche neighbors Wharton and Codman defied the excesses of the Gilded Age counseling readers to reject the popular penchant for clutter in favor of simplicity and balance More than an engaging item of period charm this historic guide offers examples of design rooted in architectural principles Black and white photographs illustrate the authors ideals of classic beauty depicting grand ballrooms and spacious boudoirs as well as the elements common to homes of every size and era doors and windows walls and ceilings floors halls and stairs One of the genre s most important and influential titles this volume sparked a Renaissance in American interior design and its sound advice and practical approach remain forever in style

The Decoration of Houses Ogden Codman Wharton,2016-08-18 The Historical Tradition Rooms in General Walls Doors Windows Fireplaces Ceilings and Floors Entrance and Vestibule Hall and Stairs The Drawing room Boudoir and Morning room Gala Rooms Ball room Saloon Music room Gallery The Library Smoking room and Den The Dining room Bedrooms The School room and Nurseries Bric Bracooms may be decorated in two ways by a superficial application of ornament totally independent of structure or by means of those architectural features which are part of the organism of every house inside as well as out In the middle ages when warfare and brigandage shaped the conditions of life and men camped in their castles much as they did in their tents it was natural that decorations should be portable and that the naked walls of the medi val chamber should be hung with arras while a ciel or ceiling of cloth stretched across the open timbers of its roof When life became more secure and when the Italian conquests of the Valois had acquainted men north of the Alps with the spirit of classic tradition proportion and the relation of voids to masses gradually came to be regarded as the chief decorative values of the interior Portable hangings were in consequence replaced by architectural ornament in other words the architecture of the room became its decoration This architectural treatment held its own through every change of taste until the second quarter of the present century but since then various influences have combined to sever the natural connection between the outside of the modern house and its interior In the average house the architect s task seems virtually confined xx to the elevations and floor plan The designing of what are to day regarded as insignificant details such as mouldings architraves and cornices has become a perfunctory work hurried over and unregarded and when this work is done the upholsterer is called in to decorate and furnish the rooms The Decoration Of Houses Edith Wharton,2020-01-17 The Decoration of Houses a manual of interior design written by Edith Wharton with architect Ogden Codman was first published in 1897 In the book the authors denounce Victorian style interior decoration and interior design especially rooms decorated with heavy window curtains Victorian bric a brac and overstuffed furniture They argue that such rooms emphasize upholstery at the expense of proper space planning and architectural design and are therefore uncomfortable and rarely used Wharton and Codman advocated the creation of houses with rooms decorated with strong architectural wall and ceiling treatments accentuated by well suited furniture rooms based on simple classical design principles such as symmetry and proportion and a sense of architectural balance The Decoration of Houses is considered a seminal work and its success led to the emergence of professional decorators working in the manner advocated by its authors most notably Elsie de Wolfe and floors etc and adds important new perspectives on the design of kitchens and the use of color both major subjects that Wharton and Codman did not address Drawing on his own work at Jayne Design Studio Jayne has selected elegant traditional interiors that demonstrate these principles Projects range from a restoration of historic eighteenth century public rooms in Crichel House in Dorset England to a mountain retreat in the wilds of Montana to an array of luxurious New York City apartments and country houses in the Hudson Valley Captured in lush photographs by Don Freeman and others all speak to Thomas Jayne s commitment to the primacy of function quality and simplicity derived from the ancient tradition of classical design As he says Tradition is not about what was Tradition is now The Decoration of Houses Edith Wharton,De Vinne Press,Ogden Codman,2018-10-14 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Ogden Codman and the Decoration of Houses Pauline C. mere openings or slits narrow and high far out of the assailants reach and piercing the walls without regard to symmetry not as Ruskin would have us believe because irregularity was thought artistic but because the mediaeval architect trained to the uses of necessity knew that he must design openings that should afford no passage to the besiegers arrows no clue to what was going on inside the keep Certainly if an architect were to propose to his client to decorate a room in a moderate sized house in the Louis XIV style and if the client had formed his idea of that style from the state apartments in the palace at Versailles he would be justified in rejecting the proposed treatment as absolutely unsuitable to modern private life whereas the architect who had gone somewhat more deeply into the subject might have singled out the style as eminently suitable having in mind one of the simple panelled rooms with tall 15 windows a dignified fireplace large tables and comfortable arm chairs which were to be found in the private houses of the same period see Plate V About Ogden Codman Jr Ogden Codman Jr the Author Funston writing on Edith Wharton in American National Biography What is most notable about A Backward Glance however is what it does not tell her criticism of Lucretia Jones her mother her difficulties with Teddy and her affair with Morton Fullerton which did not come to light until her papers deposited in Yale s Beinecke Rare Book Room and Manuscript Library were opened in 1968 The Touchstone 1900 The Valley of Decision 1902 Sanctuary 1903 The House of Mirth 1905 Madame de Treymes 1907 The Fruit of the Tree 1907 Ethan Frome 1911 The Reef 1912 The Custom of the Country 1913 Summer 1917 The Marne 1918 The Age of Innocence 1920 The Glimpses of the Moon 1922 A Son at the Front 1923 Old New York 1924 The Mother s Recompense 1925 Twilight Sleep 1927 The Children 1928 Hudson River Bracketed 1929 The Gods Arrive 1932 The Buccaneers 1938 Fast and Loose 1938 The Decoration of Houses (1897) Edith Wharton,Ogden Codman, Jr,2014-08-07 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1897 Edition DECORATION OF HOUSES EDITH.
