Disturbed Consciousness Rocco J. Gennaro, 2024-05-28 Essays defend discuss and critique specific theories of consciousness with respect to various psychopathologies In Disturbed Consciousness philosophers and other scholars examine various psychopathologies in light of specific philosophical theories of consciousness The contributing authors some of them discussing or defending their own theoretical work consider not only how a theory of consciousness can account for a specific psychopathological condition but also how the characteristics of a psychopathology might challenge such a theory Thus one essay defends the higher order thought HOT theory of consciousness against the charge that it cannot account for somatoparaphrenia a delusion in which one denies ownership of a limb Another essay argues that various attempts to explain away such anomalies within subjective theories of consciousness fail Other essays consider such topics as the application of a model of unified consciousness to cases of brain bisection and dissociative identity disorder prefrontal and parietal underconnectivity in autism and other psychopathologies self deception and the self model theory of subjectivity schizophrenia and the vehicle theory of consciousness and a shift in emphasis away from an internal or brainbound approach to psychopathology to an interactive one Each essay offers a distinctive perspective from the intersection of philosophy consciousness research and psychiatry Contributors Alexandre Billon Andrew Brook Paula Droege Rocco J Gennaro Philip Gerrans William Hirstein Jakob Hohwy Uriah Kriegel Timothy Lane Thomas Metzinger Erik Myin Inez Myin Germeys Myrto Mylopoulos Gerard O Brien Jon Opie J Kevin O Regan Iuliia Pliushch Robert Van Gulick

The Psychotheology of Sin and Salvation Paul V. Axton,2015-10-22 Through the employment of the work of Slavoj i ek and his engagement with the Apostle Paul Axton argues that Paul in Romans 6 8 understands sin as a lie grounding the subject outside of Christ and salvation is an exposure and displacement of this lie The theological significance of i ek along with Sigmund Freud and Jacques Lacan is his demonstration of the pervasive and systemic nature of this lie and its description as he finds it in Romans 7 The specific overlap of the two disciplines of psychology and theology is found in the psychoanalytic understanding that the human Subject or the psyche is structured in three registers the symbolic the imaginary and the real These three registers function like a lie analogous to the Pauline categories of law ego and the body of death which constitute Paul s dynamic of sin s deception Axton argues that if sin is understood as a lie grounding the Subject the exposure of the lie or the dispelling of any notion of mystery connected to sin is integral to salvation and the reconstructing of the Subject in Christ While the lie of sin is mediated by the law new life in the Spirit is not through the law but is a principle unto itself which though it accounts for the law is beyond the law
