The Hong Kong Protests and Political Theology Kwok Pui-lan, Francis Ching-Wah Yip, 2021-02-08 The Hong Kong protests that began in the second half of 2019 captured the world's attention as demonstrations against an extradition bill grew into a larger civil liberties movement While protests began as peaceful demonstrations the disproportionate police force with which the government responded escalated the situation to an international crisis Kwok Pui-lan and Francis Ching-wah Yip bring together an international cohort to discuss the relation between Christianity and Communism and the neoliberal economy as well as civil disobedience religion and social movements and the roles of the churches in social conflict This interdisciplinary volume showcases theological reflections by many scholars and activists in Hong Kong The Theological Project of Modernism Kevin W. Hector, 2015-06-25 Modernism's theological project was an attempt to explain two things firstly how faith might enable persons to experience their lives as hanging together even in the face of disintegrating forces like injustice tragedy and luck and secondly how one could see such faith and so a life held together by it as self-expressive Modern theologians such as Kant Schleiermacher Hegel Ritschl and Tillich thus offer accounts of how one's life would have to hang together such that one could identify with it of the oppositions which stand in the way of such hanging together of God as the one by whom oppositions are overcome such that one can have faith that one's life ultimately hangs together and of what such faith would have to be like in order for one to identify with it too So understood modern theology not only sheds light on faith's potential role in enabling persons to identify with their lives but stands in unexpected continuity with contemporary contextual theologies This book offers clear careful readings of modernism's key figures in order to explain their relevance to practical concerns and to contemporary understandings of faith The apocatastasis: or, Restitution of all things, an
