Johan de Jong

Deconstruction Of Man:

Deconstruction, Feminist Theology, and the Problem of Difference Ellen T. Armour, 1999-06-15 Ellen T Armour shows how the writings of Jacques Derrida and Luce Irigaray can be used to uncover feminism's white presumptions so that race and gender can be thought of differently In clear concise terms she explores the possibilities and limitations for feminist theology of Derrida's conception of woman and Irigaray's multiple woman as well as Derrida's thinking on race and Irigaray's work on religion

Deconstruction of Man Richard Lavall, 2004-01-12 Deconstruction Of Man is a journey through the eyes of reality Everyone is trying to find the self they have hidden inside and when they look into the mirror all they see are the pieces of them that have been ripped away or that eroded with time This is that journey through the eyes of one man The

Deconstruction of Literature David H. Hirsch, 1991 Criticizes deconstructionist literary theory because it is anti-humanistic and negates value historical truth and the worth of individual experience Notes that Heidegger embraced Nazism as in tune with his philosophy that French deconstructionists who experienced the German occupation prefer to repress this memory that Paul de Man published antisemitic articles in Nazi journals in 1940-41 and that Hans Robert Jauss served throughout the war in the Waffen SS in Eastern Europe though he claims to have known nothing of the Holocaust Argues that deconstructionism's negation of truth its proposition that language by its very nature serves deception is convenient for persons with such a background Points to affinities between deconstructionism and the recontextualization of the Holocaust in revisionist historiography in which the point of view of the victim is replaced by that of the accused Asserts that deconstructionist literary critics have ignored Holocaust literature because they devalue the real experience of human beings

Deconstruction Rajnath, 1989 The Anthropological Turn in Literary Studies Jürgen Schlaeger, 1996 Liu Zaifu: Selected Critical Essays Zaifu Liu, 2021-06-17 Liu Zaifu is a name that has already been ingrained within contemporary Chinese literary history This landmark volume presents Anglophone readers with Liu's profound reflections on Chinese literature and culture at different times The essays collected here demonstrate Liu's historical experience and trajectory as an exiled Chinese intellectual who persistently safeguards the individuality and the autonomy of literature refusing to succumb to political manipulation Liu's theory of literary subjectivity has opened ways for Chinese writers to thrive and innovate His panoramic view not only unravels the intricate interplay between literature and politics but also firmly regards the transcendental value of literature as a significant ground to subvert revolutionary dogmatism and criticize Chinese modernity Rather than drawing upon the existing paradigm he reinvents his own unique theoretical conceptions in order to exile the borrowed gods Filmspeak Edward Tomarken, 2012-10-04 Filmspeak is an accessible innovative book which uses specific examples to show how once arcane literary and cultural theory has infiltrated popular culture Theory reaches us in ways we do not even realize Issues such as the nature of knowledge or truth the function of personal response in interpretation the nature of the forces of politics the female alternative to the male view of the world are fundamental for all of us And intelligent analysis of the relationship between literary theory and popular culture can help us to understand our fast changing world Here experienced literary scholar and teacher Edward L Tomarken explains how it is possible to study the rudiments of literary theory by watching and analyzing contemporary mainstream movies from The Dark Knight to Kill Bill and from The Social Network to The Devil Wears Prada Theorists discussed include Foucault Jameson Iser and Cixous Tomarken brilliantly demonstrates that anyone can grasp modern literary theory by way of mainstream movies without having to wade through stacks of impenetrable jargon The Nation ,1884 The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism Michael Groden,Martin Kreiswirth,Imre Szeman,2005 Publisher Description Twentieth-Century Rhetorics and Rhetoricians Michael G. Moran,Michelle Ballif,2000-08-30 Rhetoric and rhetorical theory have been gaining in prominence throughout the 20th century As leaders in all fields give careful attention to issues in communication rhetoric becomes increasingly central to a range of disciplines Many of these leaders have shaped rhetorical theory through their work in other fields and rhetoric becomes more and more difficult to define and delimit This reference is a guide to major trends and developments in rhetoric and rhetorical theory during the last 100 years Included are alphabetically arranged entries for major and minor rhetoricians such as Mikhail Bakhtin Roland Barthes Wayne Booth Paul de Man Jacques Derrida Peter Elbow and Linda Flower Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a brief biography an analysis of the figure s rhetorical theory and a current bibliography of primary and secondary sources The figures included represent a range of rhetorical schools An extensive introduction discusses these schools and the volume concludes with extensive bibliographical material Differentia ,1986 Theory of Strangers Francois Laruelle,2026-01-31 Originally published in 1995 this book constitutes a turning point in the development of what Francois Laruelle calls non philosophy towards its democratic and emancipatory vision In this work Laruelle utilises his non philosophical theory to develop unified theoretical analyses into philosophy s relationship with the humanities politics and psychoanalysis Centred on the figure of the Stranger he argues for a democratic reformation of thought governed by human multitudes The new field of thought is opened by this Universal Humanity identified with three different pathways a science of people and non humanism democracy and non politics and non psychoanalysis as the development of a Universal Unconscious Portugal SB07. Sustainable Construction, Materials and Practices Luis Bragança,Manuel D. Pinheiro,Said Jalali,Ricardo Mateus,Rogério Amoêda,Manuel Correia Guedes,2007-08-15 The construction industry is a vibrant and active industry The building sector is responsible for creating modifying and improving the living environment of humanity On the other hand construction and buildings have considerable environmental impacts consuming a significant proportion of limited resources of the planet including energy raw material water and land Therefore the sustainability of the built environment the construction industry and the related activities is a pressing issue facing all stakeholders in order to promote Sustainable Development The new millennium is challenging practitioners and researchers with the sustainability of the built environment and the construction industry Hence the main purpose of this publication is to discuss these challenges and present solutions that actively facilitate and promote the adoption of policies methods and tools to accelerate the movement towards a global sustainable built environment The issues presented include Building sustainability assessment tools Indoor environment quality and benchmarks Sustainable resources and materials use Use of non conventional materials Use of industrial waste Eco materials and technologies Sustainable management of existing building stock Innovative sustainable construction systems and Design

The Movement of Showing Johan de Jong,2020-03-01 This book explores the idea shared by Derrida Hegel and Heidegger that the value of their thought is not found in its results or conclusions but in its movement All three describe the heart of their work in terms of a pathway development or movement that seems to deprive their thought of a solid ground Johan de Jong argues that this is a structural vulnerability that is the source of its value tracing Derrida s indirect method from his early to later works and critically considering his engagements with Hegel and Heidegger De Jong s analysis locates an affinity among Hegel Heidegger and Derrida in a shared distrust of externality and against the grain of some Levinasian commentaries argues that Derrida s indirectness results in an ethics of complicity The Movement of Showing answers a central question that many polemics about continental philosophy and postmodernism revolve around namely with which methods does one philosophize responsibly It shows the difference between critique and polemics and why simply taking up a position for or against is insufficient in order to think responsibly

Writing and Reading Differently George Douglas Atkins,Michael L. Johnson,1985

The Ethics of Deconstruction Simon Critchley,1999 It is now widely accepted that The Ethics of Deconstruction was the first book to argue for the ethical turn in Derrida s work and to show as powerfully as possible how deconstruction has persuasive ethical consequences that were vital to our thinking through of questions of politics and democracy Now reissued with three new appendices which restate as well as reflect upon and deepen the book s arguments The Ethics of Deconstruction is undoubtedly the standard work in the field

Listener and BBC Television Review ,1988

Heidegger Beyond Deconstruction Michael Lewis,2007 A highly original reading of Heidegger in light of the deconstruction movement and the work of philosophers including Derrida Marx Lacan and Zizek
