Publications Systems Department, 1983 Indian Boyhood & From the Deep Woods to Civilization Charles Eastman, 2023-12-01 In Indian Boyhood and From the Deep Woods to Civilization Charles Eastman crafts a poignant autobiographical narrative that intricately weaves the tapestry of Native American life through vivid recollections of his youth His literary style blends lyrical prose with ethnographic detail capturing both the grandeur and the fragility of Sioux culture during a period of profound change As a dual heritage author navigating the complexities of indigenous identity Eastman's works reflect the tension between traditional values and the encroaching forces of Western civilization offering readers a nuanced perspective on cultural survival and adaptation Charles Eastman born on the Santee Reservation in 1858 was raised in a world profoundly influenced by both his Native American heritage and Western education His experiences as a doctor reformer and author enabled him to articulate the challenges faced by Native Americans in the modern world Eastman's works emerged from a desire to educate non-Natives about indigenous cultures while simultaneously advocating for Native rights an endeavor shaped by his own transitions from the woods to formal society For readers seeking a deeper understanding of Native American history and spirit Eastman's writings are essential They illuminate the rich narratives of a culture at a crossroads

Burroughs,1998-05-01 John Burroughs is generally credited with having popularized the American nature essay as a literary genre He journeyed to Yellowstone with President Theodore Roosevelt and hiked around the Grand Canyon and the Yosemite Valley with John Muir Collected here are natural history essays from the books that span Burroughs s most productive years from 1871 to 1912 In these essays Burroughs writes of the seasons of his beloved Catskill Mountains the Adirondacks the Maine woods and the far west of Yosemite and coastal Alaska Burroughs set the tone for a literary tradition that continues today As Richard F Fleck notes in the introduction Surely all American nature writers owe some debt to John Burroughs who takes the reader along the trail and gives him the sight sound and scent of the deep woods The University of Chicago
