interviewed many of the captured German generals in the following months and years including Gerd von Rundstedt Sepp Dietrich and Kurt Meyer 26 in all From them Major Shulman learnt why it was that such a superbly armed body of fighting men suffered such a calamitous defeat This absorbing book is the result of those interviews First published in 1947 it was the first account to reveal the truth of what happened in the war how Hitler and his General Staff planned their campaigns how the discipline and ignorance of the German military machine served Hitler well and Germany badly and why victory finally slipped from their hands The best and most vivid account of the German collapse Hugh Trevor Roper The Sunday Times
