THE CORPSE

with the Grimy Glove
