A Personal Possession:

A Personal Possession Jeanne Hart,1989 Inalienable Possessions Annette B. Weiner,1992-05-13 Weiner provides not only a new perspective on social and natural reproduction but also a framework through which to compare societies This is an original point of view that will have real effects on the direction of future fieldwork and comparative analysis Ivan Karp Smithsonian Institution The Expression of Possession William McGregor,2009 This collection of nine original articles deals with the expression of possession at various levels of grammar morphological phrasal and syntactic and from a typologically diverse range of languages including Germanic Oceanic Meso American and Australian Aboriginal There are two main aims The first is to reveal something of the range of constructions employed cross linguistically in the expression of possession and second to present an understanding of the possessive relation itself as a cognitive and linguistic phenomenon A guiding principle in the selection of contributors has been to invite linguists whose research while not necessarily directly dealing with possession touches on it and indicates that they are likely to provide fresh perspectives on this well trodden field Key features William McGregor is a well known expert in this field of research Possession is a paradigm for studies on typology ethnology etc because a multitude of linguistic and cultural varieties are reflected in this field new series textbook

Social Structure, Space and Possession in Tongan Culture and Language Svenja Völkel,2010 This interdisciplinary study investigates the relationship between culture language and cognition based on the aspects of social structure space and possession in Tonga Polynesia Grounded on extensive field research Volkel explores the subject from an anthropological as well as from a linguistic perspective The book provides new insights into the language of respect an honorific system which is deeply anchored in the societal hierarchy spatial descriptions that are determined by socio cultural and geocentric parameters kinship terminology and possessive categories that perfectly express the system of social status inequalities among relatives These examples impressively show that language is deeply anchored in its cultural context Moreover the linguistic structures reflect the underlying cognitive frame of its speakers Just as several cultural practices sitting order access to land and gift exchange processes the linguistic means are not only expressions of stratified social networks but also tools to maintain or negotiate the underlying socio cultural system Instant PET Book and Audio CD Pack Martyn Ford,2007-02-19 A collection of photocopiable activities and practice material for PET candidates and PET level learners
