Disasters and Accidents in Manned Spaceflight Shayler David, 2000-05-17 Here Dave Shayler examines the hurdles faced by space crews as they prepare and embark on space missions Divided into six parts the text opens with the fateful tragic mission of the Challenger crew in 1986 This is followed by a review of the risks that accompany every space trip and the unique environment in which the space explorer lives and works The next four sections cover the four parts of any space flight training launch in flight and recovery and present major historical incidents in each case The final section looks at the next forty years beyond the Earth's atmosphere beginning with the International Space Station and moving on to the difficulties inherent in a manned exploration of Mars

Love, Power, and Knowledge Hilary Rose, 1994 Rose's passionately engaged book develops new terms for thinking about science and feminism She locates the feminist criticism of science as integral to both the feminist movement and the radical science movement She attends to the political economy of the production of knowledge and to what does and does not count as knowledge how women and minorities are affected by these processes is also explored Because biology is destiny is both an old and oppressive claim made by science she examines at length the latest and massively resourced claimant the Human Genome program the so called Holy Grail of the new industrialized genetics Rose's commitment to feminist resistance against the science and technology of oppression leads her to explore feminist science fiction as an ally of feminist science critics with its imaginative capacity to explore different futures with different sciences and technologies

Summarizing Information Brigitte Endres-Niggemeyer, 2012-12-06 Summarizing is the process of reducing the large volume of information in something like a novel or a scientific paper to a short summary or abstract comprising only the most essential points Summarizing is frequent in everyday communication but it is also a professional skill for journalists and scientific writers Automated summarizing functions are urgently needed by Internet users who wish to exploit the information available without being overwhelmed This book presents the state of the art of summarizing and surveys related research it deals with everyday and professional summarizing as well as computerized approaches The author focuses in detail on the cognitive processes involved and supports this with a multimedia simulation system on the accompanying CD ROM for Mac OS 7.5 and Windows 95

Whose Science? Whose Knowledge? Sandra Harding, 1991 Whose Science Whose Knowledge represents a transition from gender to power considerations in Harding's continuous efforts to raise questions about the theory and practice of science Shulamit Reinharz Gender Society Harding's is a richly informed radical voice that boldly confronts issues of crucial importance to the future of many academic disciplines Her book will amply reward readers looking to achieve a more fruitful understanding of the relations between feminism science and social life Sandra Harding here develops further the themes first addressed in her widely influential book The Science Question in Feminism and conducts a compelling analysis of feminist theories on the philosophical problem of how we know what we know Following a strong narrative line Harding sets out her arguments in highly readable prose In Part 1 she discusses issues that will interest anyone concerned with the social bases of scientific knowledge In Part 2 she modifies some of her views and then pursues the many issues raised by the feminist position which holds that women's social experience provides a unique vantage point for discovering masculine bias and questioning conventional claims about nature and social life In Part 3 Harding looks at the insights that people of color male feminists lesbians and others can bring to these controversies and concludes by outlining a feminist approach to science in which these insights are central Women and men cannot understand or explain the world we live in or the real choices we have she writes as long as the sciences describe and explain the world primarily from the perspectives of the lives of the dominant groups Ontario reports ,1995 Journal of Comparative Pathology and Therapeutics ,1897 Urban India ,1989 Bulletin ,1925 The Budget Report of the State Board of Finance and Control to the General Assembly, Session of [1929-] 1937 Connecticut.
