A Measured Response:

Finding a Measured Response to Iran's Activities Bradley N. Fultz, 2013 The June 2013 presidential election in Iran accompanies a broad optimistic tone for rapprochement in the long standing contested relationship between the United States and Tehran Despite the change in presidency however over three decades of historic precedence endure while mistrust and frustration between the two nations run deep With detailed analysis of the numerous diplomatic economic and military engagements between the countries the author provides insight into the story behind the headlines furnishing the reader with a snapshot of the various events since 1979 that have combined to create the problematic situation between Tehran and Washington The author traces the past thirty three years of U S Iran relations following an action counter action theme and proposes a policy paradigm for engaging the Islamic Republic in the future
