part because Lou Costello had already failed to cut it in the film industry In fact Costello had appeared in a Laurel Hardy film in 1927 before meeting his partner Bud Abbott on the burlesque circuit in New York City In fact the two first performed together in 1935 only because Abbott filled in for Costello's usual partner who happened to be ill one fateful day Over time Abbott Costello perfected their routine which typically consisted of Abbott playing the straight man while his dimwit partner acted foolishly and interrupted his plans It was a shtick that also did well on radio albeit one that required Costello to modify his voice with a higher pitch that not only differentiated him from Abbott but also made him sound appropriately dumber By 1940 they were not only successful on the radio but also among America's most popular movie stars a status they held almost consistently throughout the decade and into the early 1950s The legendary comedy duo performed together for decades and like similar acts their popularity began to wane over time but Abbott Costello are still household names today While all of their material is still in syndication and watched by many they are best known today for Who's on First the famous routine in which Abbott's answers about the names of baseball players at various positions on the field sound like questions and completely confuse Costello Although the skit was pieced together from various others it was immortalized by Abbott Costello and helped popularize not only the duo but some of their subsequent material American Legends Abbott Costello examines the lives and careers of one of America's most famous comedy teams Along with pictures of important people places and events you will learn about Abbott Costello like never before in no time at all Banker's Guide to New Small Business Finance Charles H. Davidson,2009-11-29 Over 13 000 000 people are currently blogging with thousands being created each day But what about the blogs you haven t seen written by the iconic men and women you re dying to know the most intimate details about but who died before the internet was invented This original take on the biggest literary development since the paperback offers 200 blogs inspired by the most famous minds in history detailing their hysterical personal revelations such as John Lennon s thoughts after meeting Yoko Ono and her obsession with the Beatles publishing rights Marilyn Monroe s annoyance at her new beau J who breaks off their dates with excuses like having to avert a war in Costa Rica Read Shakespeare on a treatment for a new play about two princes who misplace their horse and carriage and spend the entire play trying to find it or how a stray hot dog nearly derailed Ghandi s hunger strike There s also the transcript of Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin s intensely competitive game of Rocks Paper Scissors to decide who would be the first man to set foot on the moon and much much more In this book Paul Davidson proves that matters proving there s no such thing as too much information Pi (π) in Nature, Art, and Culture Marcel Danesi,2020-12-07 In Pi in Nature Art and Culture Marcel Danesi revisits the importance of π as a pattern in the structure of reality fitting in with the Pythagorean view of Order π has cropped up in formulas that describe natural and physical structures which on the surface seem to have nothing to do with a circle but might harbor the archetype of circularity as a principle Through this book thus revisits the implicit ancient Greek view that geometry was a hermeneutic science a discipline aiming to investigate the connectivity among numbers shapes and natural phenomena It also examines its manifestations in aesthetic symbolic and cultural structures which point to an abiding fascination with the circle as an unconscious archetype Hermeneutic geometry is ultimately about the exploration of the meanings of geometric mathematical notions to science and human life Lou's on First Chris Costello,Raymond Strait,2016-05-16 This intimate portrait of Lou Costello 1906 1959 offers a rare look at one of the most talented comedians of all time Starting in the 1930s Costello attained enormous fame touring the burlesque circuits with straight man Bud Abbott 1895 1974 Their live skits including Who s on First radio programs and films such as One Night in the Tropics Buck Privates Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein and In the Navy made comic history Behind the scenes however Costello faced numerous crises a bout with rheumatic fever that left him bedridden for months the drowning death of his young son and constant haggles with Universal Studios over its reluctance to adequately finance productions of Abbott and Costello films Lou s on First goes beyond Costello s clownish persona to explore his Pagliacci nature the private demons behind the happy public face the heartbreaking moments in an otherwise storybook marriage the business ventures soured by unscrupulous managers and the true nature of the breakup of his twenty one year partnership with Bud Abbott Radio Comedy Diary Gary Poole,2001-07-11 This book is a real find for those who enjoy radio nostalgia but more importantly for scholars of broadcasting From 1947 to 1950 while listening to such voices as Bob Hope Red Skelton Milton Berle Jack Benny Fred Allen and Jimmy Durante and shows like Fibber McGee Molly Amos n Andy Blondie and You Bet Your Life the author was writing down jokes gags one liners and quotations In that short time he had filled 11 spiral notebooks Fifty years later in a labor of love the author painstakingly transferred those childhood notes into this invaluable in fact undoubtedly unique record of a boom time in American radio This is an unexpected treasure for radio scholars who have long lamented the lack of recordings for the majority of radio programming Television researchers as well will benefit here are root sources of television comedy It is a revelation to find that what we are laughing at today often was first done on radio over 50 years ago The author has also included a notes and comments section which includes background material on all the radio programs in this book Abbott and Costello Comics #4 Kari Therrian, St. Publishing, 2014-12-30 Abbott And Costello Comics were published from February 1948 September 1956 for 40 issues Now you can re live or enjoy for the first time these great adventures from generations past with UP History and Hobby line of comic reprints The comic reprints from Golden Age Reprints and UP History and Hobby are reproduced from actual classic comics and sometimes reflect the imperfection of books that are decades old These books are constantly updated with the best version available if you are EVER unhappy with the experience or quality of a book return the book to us to exchange for another title or the upgrade as new files become available 1950 s humor HU1296720143868 Votes and Proceedings New York (State).
