Challenging Corruption In Asia:

Challenging Corruption in Asia Vinay Kumar Bhargava, Emil P. Bolongaita, 2004 Challenging Corruption in Asia provides an analytical framework to explore and attempt to answer these questions Drawing on their experience as public policy advisors and implementers of anticorruption programs the authors outline a six step approach to developing effective anticorruption strategies tailored specifically to a country s pattern of corruption and conditions of governance Case studies are written by researchers and policy advisors from Indonesia the Philippines Thailand and South Korea Together they illustrate the impact of country specific patterns of corruption and governance on anticorruption effectiveness Emphasis is placed on choosing anticorruption instruments suited to the governance environment on the key roles played by anticorruption champions especially civil society organizations and the media and on the need to make information on the extent and perceptions of corruption widely available R sum de l diteur Challenging Corruption in Asia ,2004

Challenging Corruption in Asia Vinay Kumar Bhargava, Emil P. Bolongaita, 2004 This publication contains an analytical framework for a six step approach to developing effective anti corruption strategies taking into account country specific conditions of governance It includes case studies from Indonesia the Philippines Thailand and South Korea which illustrate the impact of different patterns of corruption and governance on anti corruption effectiveness Corruption and Development in Asian Nations Rita Shah, 2025-01-03 Corruption and Development in Asian Nations examines the pervasive issue of corruption in Asia ranging from local officials demands for accommodation to multi million dollar bribery by corrupt politicians We explore how corruption affects various sectors including job related abuses future job delivery in the private sector and issues faced by law abiding government employees The book also covers topics like money laundering and white elephant projects that benefit engineers and their political allies Divided into four main sections corruption and the state corruption and economic development corruption and society and corruption control this book discusses theories stories and trends of corruption and anti corruption reforms in Asia We compare and contrast corruption in different social and institutional contexts examining both successful and unsuccessful efforts to control it and the lessons learned from these experiences This comprehensive guide appeals to students and scholars of Asian political and social sciences offering valuable insights into the complexities of corruption and its impact on development The Enemy Within Simon Tay, 2003 This book shares best practices and practical experiences from Asian countries and should serve as a resource book in the hands of counter corruption agencies and government leaders It examines common challenges and shared experiences and lays out tested strategies and solutions Taking Action Against Corruption in Asia and the Pacific Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, 2002 This edited collection of the papers presented during the Third ADB OECD Conference on Combating Corruption in the Asia Pacific Region held in November 2001 presents the conference s discussion of the difficult task of preventing corruption Discussed are the progress and major barriers encountered in the fight against corruption in the region with specific reports from Cambodia Nepal and Australia An examination of recent measures on promoting transparency through disclosure of information introduced in Japan and Pakistan is also presented The successes and challenges of current initiatives by policy makers and market participants are discussed and encouraging experiences from Australia and Japan in investigating prosecuting and sanctioning bribery offenses are related Progress in the Fight Against Corruption in Asia and the Pacific Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,2001 This book assembles the papers presented during the Joint ADB OECD Conference on Combating Corruption in the Asian and Pacific region held in Seoul Korea in December 2000 The American "Pivot" to Asia. Military and Political Challenges and Implications for the US and Pacific-Asia Christian Rucker,2016-04-26 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject Politics Political systems in general and in comparison grade 1 3 Friedrich Alexander University Erlangen Nuremberg Institut f r Politische Wissenschaft course Mastercourse American Conflict and Crisis Management in the 21st Century language English abstract This paper aims to approach the subject of reorientation of the US foreign policy regarding the Pacific region Priority will be set on military and alliance policy factors of main parties involved first and foremost the USA Moreover the issues of the strategy of reorientation in itself and problems that are involved will be addressed In addition the following will be discussed characteristics and implementation options and the question of relevance as to how this reorientation towards Asia means neglecting other regions like the Near East and how the U S are to bring their global claim of validity in conformity with it Tthe US have a strong presence of seaborne airborne and ground based facilities numerous military materials as well as personnel are stationed in the state of Hawaii Alaska and Guam This includes troop concentrations in allied countries such as South Korea and Japan but also a rotating stationing of troops in some other partner countries within Pacific Asia such as the Philippines and Australia For some time past the USA have been turning towards the region of Southeast Asia and they are beginning to expand their political economical and military engagement in this region of the world There are diverse reasons for this such as an opening of new rising markets and the development of political and economical relations to significant emerging countries and perhaps future industrialized countries of the 21st century Another reason is China s ascent as an important player regarding international relations which are significant to the US as well as to future relations of both countries Responding to the Challenges of Corruption United Nations,2000 This publication attempts to identify the problem related to corruption and their effects on good governance with particular attention given to the risk presented by corruption to economic and industrial stability in developing countries and countries in transition It reviews the achievements and difficulties encountered at the political and judiciary level the business world international experiences and activities to fight corruption The publication also highlights the importance of prevention as an effective tool to fight corruption Global Challenges in Asia ,2014 The South Asian Challenge Khadija Haq,2002 This volume discusses the challenges faced by South Asia at the dawn of the new century It seeks to discover why despite having an enormous potential for development the region has lagged behind other areas of the world in its utilization of resources and provides possible solutions to South Asia's problems

Tackling Corruption, Transforming Lives, 2008
Corruption is increasingly being challenged as unacceptable across Asia and the Pacific widespread malfeasance corrodes health care education and public utilities This report shows how people are negatively affected by corruption focusing on why it hurts the poor the most and what can be done It also spotlights the successes so far as well as proposing further solutions
