Discourses On African Affairs:

Discourses on African Affairs Okello Oculi, 2000 Is the ideological weaponry of the post Cold War era currently being forged in the officially encouraged tide of xenophobia sweeping over the unemployed citizenries of Europe Or in the civilized media s obsessive coverage of orchestrated ethnic wrath in Europe and Africa And what new strategies can policymakers in Africa possibly devise to combat the steady diet of Western reportage on Africa the Violent that routinely reinforces African self contempt at home and throughout the so called African Diaspora These and a host of other probing questions are raised by the author of this cogent collection of provocative essays

Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse

Nwachukwu Frank Ukadike, 2014-02-27 Critical Approaches to African Cinema Discourse utilizes an interdisciplinary approach to lay bare the diversity and essence of African cinema discourse It is an anthology of historical reflections critical essays and interviews by film critics historians theorists and filmmakers that signifies a dialogue and engagement apropos the ideology and cultural politics of film production in Africa The contributors are extremely concerned not only with the history of African cinema but with its future and its potential This book then is not limited to the expansion of the discourse on African cinema but tries to approach the definition of the critical canon within the exigencies and manifestations of art and African sociopolitical practices The authors view these practices as an investment in a cultural imperative stemming from the quest to delineate how critical methodologies are derived from and shape contemporary historical and cultural practices Hence the contributions are less about the usual constrictive method of analysis and more about illustrating manifestations of an interrogative critical methodology that is certainly an offspring of an indigenous African critical cum cinematic culture and paradigms

African Affairs, 1944 Political Discourses in African Thought Pieter Boele van Hensbroek, 1999-05-30 The dominant issues in African political thought from the 1960s onward have been development and socialism In the present decade new issues have arisen such as democracy civil society the nation state and the relevance of traditional political institutions Typically however these new issues have been discussed in models of thought which already served in the 1960s or even before Boele van Hensbroek aims to provide the necessary insight into the history of African political thought as well as an analytical framework to clarify contemporary African discourses on democracy He proceeds in three steps First the most important discussions in the last 150 years are presented A fascinating history emerges from the great 19th century theorists such as Edward Blyden and Africanus Horton to prominent nationalists such as Kwame Nkrumah and Amilcar Cabral and to contemporary African intellectuals Second the African history of ideas shows that particular models of thought recur which can be reconstructed as three consistent models of thought Finally the relevance of the history of ideas and philosophical analysis of models of thought can be shown by providing a new perspective on contemporary debates on democracy in Africa
