enduring love and care for all of creation In Paws and Prayers Froom shares personal stories prayers and reflections that highlight the spiritual companionship pets offer demonstrating how they help us connect with the divine in the everyday Pet Theology delves deeper into the theological implications of our relationships with animals drawing on biblical teachings the legacy of Saint Francis of Assisi and modern perspectives on creation care Together these books explore how pets enrich our faith challenge us to grow and inspire us to be better stewards of God s creation Perfect for pet owners animal advocates or anyone curious about the spiritual significance of animals these books offer a unique blend of theological insight practical wisdom and heartfelt inspiration Discover how our four legged or feathered or scaled friends guide us closer to God revealing the heart of His love a love that embraces and cherishes all living beings Discovering Faith: My Spiritual Journey Redd Stahl,2017-02-25 This is a story about how I came to realize my faith in God and feel His impact in my life This is not a book about religion or any particular denomination or about the Bible or even about scripture It is about how I discovered Him through certain events in my life and what He means in my life It is about my own personal journey and His ongoing impact in my life Pathways of Faith Rodney J Foster,2024-06-20 Pathways of Faith Discovering Faith through God s Word is a journey through the fundamental aspects of Christian life designed to help young adults navigate their faith with clarity and confidence In a world filled with uncertainty and conflicting messages finding and understanding one s identity purpose and calling can be challenging This book is crafted to provide a guiding light rooted in the timeless truths of Scripture to illuminate the path toward a deeper more meaningful relationship with God Discovering God Rodney Stark,2007-10-02 Discovering God is a monumental history of the origins of the great religions from the Stone Age to the Modern Age Sociologist Rodney Stark surveys the birth and growth of religions around the world from the prehistoric era of primal beliefs the history of the pyramids found in Iraq Egypt Mexico and Cambodia and the great Axial Age of Plato Zoroaster Confucius and the Buddha to the modern Christian missions and the global spread of Islam He argues for a free market theory of religion and for the controversial thesis that under the best unimpeded conditions the true most authentic religions will survive and thrive Among his many conclusions Despite decades of faulty reports that early religions were crude muddles of superstition it turns out that primitive humans had surprisingly sophisticated notions about God and Creation The idea of sin appeared suddenly in the sixth century BCE and quickly reshaped religious ideas from Europe to China Some major world religions seem to lack any plausible traces of divine inspiration Ironically some famous figures who attempted to found Godless religions ended up being worshiped as Gods Most people believe in the existence of God or Gods and this has apparently been so throughout human history Many modern biologists and psychologists reject these spiritual ideas especially those about the existence of God as delusional They claim that religion is a primitive survival mechanism that should have been discarded as humans evolved beyond the stage where belief in God served any useful purpose that in modern societies faith is a misleading crutch and an impediment to reason In Discovering God award winning sociologist

Rodney Stark responds to this position arguing that it is our capacity to understand God that has evolved that humans now know much more about God than they did in ancient times

Journey, Discovering Faith Beyond the Four Walls of the Church Nancy A. Boyd, 2010-01 Some years ago a very wise young pastor explained to me that the world is full of ministry and its opportunities I knew shortly afterwards that my role in this cause would be outside the four walls of the church itself It is not usually those within who are suffering the result of having been disenfranchised or disillusioned by the organized practice of faith though it does happen In the practice of my own faith both inside and outside the church I learned that my ministry needed to be with those who were crying out either silently or verbally FROM the wilderness I knew that I had to bring to them by the power of God's own doing the words that would personify His unconditional love and grace the HOPE that lives in knowing Christ for oneself apart from the voices which so often exclude and I believe distort the truth of our own belovedness These are those words

Operational Faith Derrius M. Colvin, Sr., 2019-02-16 Do you fully understand how to operate your life by faith Do you know you were created by God for a specific purpose In this practical guide Dr Derrius M Colvin Sr helps both new and mature Christians and pastors to become spiritually stronger He helps you discover the purpose for your life by walking in the will of God Operational Faith goes beyond just talking about faith to coaching you to live and to operate your life by faith Dr Colvin introduces the Model of Faith a tool utilizing the idea of operational faith to help you explore God's will and the path you should follow to discover his plan for your life He also discusses the relationship between God's will the voice of God obedience operational faith prayer and patience Through scripture citations end of chapter discussion questions and personal observations based on Dr Colvin's deep biblical knowledge Operational Faith provides a wealth of information to help you grow on your spiritual journey

The Gift of Faith Bryan Holstrom, 2012-02 How does a person come to faith in Christ Is that faith a gift from God or the work of man or some combination of the two As Martin Luther wrote long ago the issue of who does what in the matter of salvation constitutes the most fundamental of questions that the believer in Christ must face It was the question at the heart of the struggle to reform the church in the sixteenth century and it has resurfaced as a source of contention within the evangelical church of our day In The Gift of Faith Bryan Holstrom offers a fresh exploration of the issues involved and the biblical basis for the traditional understanding that faith is a gift from God He lays out the relationship between grace and faith and argues that the teaching on salvation that is found in many churches today is derived more from the modern self esteem movement than from a careful reading of the Bible Most importantly Holstrom demonstrates that what is ultimately at stake in the battle over grace and faith is
