Discrimination Against Immigrant Workers in Australia Lois Foster, Anthony Marshall, Lynne S. Williams, 1991

The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia Ian McAllister, Steve Dowrick, Riaz Hassan, 2003-08-07 First published in 2003 The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia is a high quality reference on significant research in Australian social sciences The book is divided into three main sections covering the central areas of the social sciences economics political science and sociology Each section examines the significant research in the field placing it within the context of broader debates about the nature of the social sciences and the ways in which institutional changes have shaped how they are defined taught and researched

The Australian People James Jupp, 2001-10 Australia is one of the most ethnically diverse societies in the world today From its ancient indigenous origins to British colonisation followed by waves of European then international migration in the twentieth century the island continent is home to people from all over the globe Each new wave of settlers has had a profound impact on Australian society and culture The Australian People documents the dramatic history of Australian settlement and describes the rich ethnic and cultural inheritance of the nation through the contributions of its people It is one of the largest reference works of its kind with approximately 250 expert contributors and almost one million words Illustrated in colour and black and white the book is both a comprehensive encyclopedia and a survey of the controversial debates about citizenship and multiculturalism now that Australia has attained the centenary of its federation

De Facto Discrimination, Immigrant Workers and Ethnic Minorities Carl Raskin, 1993

Canada-Australia Kate Burrige, Lois Foster, Gerry Turcotte, 1997-08-15 This volume is the result of the Association for Canadian Studies in Australia and New Zealand ACSANZ 1995 conference held at La Trobe University in Melbourne Australia A special feature of the conference though not its exclusive focus was trade relations But as with all ACSANZ conferences the papers were wide ranging and contributors were not limited to a single theme This publication is a refereed collection from more than sixty papers that were presented and range from discussions of immigration policy in Canada and Australia to architectural practices in British Columbia from Canadian influences on Australia's economic development to issues of identity politics in each nation's literature In addition the collection represents major research in the areas of globalization migration pluralism and ethnic relations with a strongly though not exclusively comparative orientation This work is a co publication with the International Council for Canadian Studies

Race, Ethnicity And Nation Peter Ratcliffe, 2005-08-17 An international and comparative analysis of social division rooted in race ethnicity and national identity It provides an overview of the key issues underlying ethnic conflict which has now risen to the top of the international political agenda
