The Practice of English as a Medium of Instruction (EMI) Around the World Carol Griffiths, 2023-08-08 This edited volume presents eleven empirical papers reporting the existing literature and the results of an original study focusing on EMI English as a medium of instruction in a particular area Central and Eastern Europe Western and Southern Europe Nordic Baltic countries Central Asia the Middle East East Asia South East Asia North Africa Sub Saharan Africa South Asia and Latin America Each of these different areas tends to have its own ways of dealing with the EMI issue and these are brought together in a meta analysis in the final chapter Implications for the conduct of English as a medium of instruction are drawn both on a chapter by chapter basis and also in the meta analysis The examination of EMI on a contextual basis is a unique feature of this book setting it apart from others in the field which almost all deal with a single or limited context The volume will be of interest to policymakers institutional heads graduate students and their teachers and to thesis writers and researchers From International to Local English and Back Again Roberta Facchinetti, 2010 All languages encode aspects of culture and every culture has its own specificities to be proud of and to be transmitted The papers in this book explore aspects of this relationship between language and culture considering issues related to the processes of internationalization and localization of the English language The volume is divided into two sections complementing each other the first one Localizing English focuses on the significance of ethnic knowledge local culture and tradition wherever English is used The second one Internationalizing English deals with the degrees and patterns of internationalization of English deriving from its contact with diverse cultures and its adaptation to different professional settings and communicative purposes Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996 English in a Globalised Environment Zuraidah Mohd Don, 2006 The Journal of International Communication, 1995 The Chinese Story in Global Order Chen Liu, 2023-06-29 This book provides a historical review of the transformation of China's image around the world since the 1978 Reform and Opening Up. Based on a synthetic model that the author constructs for evaluating national images together with a historical review and quantitative analysis, it discusses the issues and challenges confronting China's image around the world since the Opening Up. To help rectify the situation that most of the research on China's reform efforts focuses on hard power esp. economic power, this book which mainly focuses on China's soft power reviews and assesses its global image from the three perspectives of politics, economy, and culture. In the process, it sheds valuable new light on the presentation of China's image and the world's perceptions of China. Communication Ethics and Global Change Thomas William Cooper, 1989 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 2001 The Opening of Texas to Foreign Settlement, 1801-1821 Mattie Austin Hatcher, 1927 African Languages/Langues Africaines P. Akujobi Nwachukwu, 2017-09-29 Volume 2 of African Languages includes articles originally published in 1976, written in French and English, on educational, literary, cultural, historical, and socio-linguistic aspects of language in Africa, as well as descriptive and comparative studies. Among others, there are chapters on an early Vai manuscript from Liberia, John Clarke's unidentified Nago dialect, and Swahili secondary education in Tanzania. Primary School Leadership in Cambodia Thida Kheang, Tom O'Donoghue, Simon Clarke, 2018-03-16 This book investigates the relationship between context and leadership in post-conflict Cambodia. Building on the understanding that approaches to leadership are tightly woven within the contexts that leaders operate, the authors examine the case of primary school leadership in Cambodia. A low-income and post-conflict society, rocked by civil war and genocide between the 1960s and the 1990s, the country is perhaps unsurprisingly faced with numerous challenges as it engages in the process of national rehabilitation and reconstruction, particularly in relation to the education system. The authors provide a comprehensive historical background to primary school leadership, not only in Cambodia but in post-conflict environments, more broadly, informing school leadership preparation, development, and support, and facilitating understanding of the context in which school leaders work. This book will be of value to students and scholars of primary school education and education in post-conflict countries, as well as to practitioners and policy makers.
