Discovering Horn:

Discovering Horn Paula Hardwick,1981 English Medieval Industries John Blair,Nigel Ramsay,1991-01-01 This work is intended as a modern successor to L F Salzman s English Industries in the Middle Ages 1913 The approach to each industry is by material discussing its acquisition working and sale as a finished product Only industries that resulted in the production of consumer goods and where substantial numbers of artefacts survive from the Middle Ages are dealt with fishing and brewing are therefore omitted the text is illustrated by pictures of surviving objects and contemporary representations of medieval work The Grove Encyclopedia of Materials and Techniques in Art Gerald W. R. Ward,2008 The Grove Encyclopedia of Materials and Techniques deals with all aspects of materials techniques conservation and restoration in both traditional and nontraditional media including ceramics sculpture metalwork painting works on paper textiles video digital art and more Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in The Dictionary of Art and adding new entries this work is a comprehensive reference resource for artists art dealers collectors curators conservators students researchers and scholars Similar in design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this one volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of materials and techniques in various geographical locations The Encyclopedia provides unparalleled scope and depth and it offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as over 150 illustrations and color plates The Grove Encyclopedia of Materials and Techniques offers scholarly information on materials and techniques in art for anyone who studies creates collects or deals in works of art The entries are written to be accessible to a wide range of readers and the work is designed as a reliable and convenient resource covering this essential area in the visual arts
