Gravity of the Situation 2 That We make no delay in this matter is rendered necessary especially by the fact that the partisans of error are to be sought not only among the Church's open enemies they lie hid a thing to be deeply deplored and feared in her very bosom and heart and are the more mischievous the less conspicuously they appear We allude Venerable Brethren to many who belong to the Catholic laity nay and this is far more lamentable to the ranks of the priesthood itself who feigning a love for the Church lacking the firm protection of philosophy and theology nay more thoroughly imbued with the poisonous doctrines taught by the enemies of the Church and lost to all sense of modesty vaunt themselves as reformers of the Church and forming more boldly into line of attack assail all that is most sacred in the work of Christ not sparing even the person of the Divine Redeemer whom with sacrilegious daring they reduce to a simple mere man 3 Though they express astonishment themselves no one can justly be surprised that We number such men among the enemies of the Church if leaving out of consideration the internal disposition of soul of which God alone is the judge he is acquainted with their tenets their manner of speech their conduct Nor indeed will he err in accounting them the most pernicious of all the adversaries of the Church For as We have said they put their designs for her ruin into operation not from without but from within hence the danger is present almost in the very veins and heart of the Church whose injury is the more certain the more intimate is their knowledge of her Moreover they lay the axe not to the branches and shoots but to the very root that is to the faith and its deepest fires And having struck at this root of immortality they proceed to disseminate poison through the whole tree so that there is no part of Catholic truth from which they hold their hand none that they do not strive to corrupt Further none is more skilful none more astute than they in the employment of a thousand noxious arts for they double the parts of rationalist and Catholic and this so craftily that they easily lead the unwary into error and since audacity is their chief characteristic there is no conclusion of any kind from which they shrink or which they do not thrust forward with pertinacity and assurance To this must be added the fact which indeed is well calculated to deceive souls that they lead a life of the greatest activity of assiduous and ardent application to every branch of learning and that they possess as a rule a reputation for the strictest morality Finally and this almost destroys all hope of cure their very doctrines have given such a bent to their minds that they disdain all authority and brook no restraint and relying upon a false conscience they attempt to ascribe to a love of truth that which is in reality the result of pride and obstinacy Once indeed We had hopes of recalling them to a better sense and to this end we first of all showed them kindness as Our children then we treated them with severity and at last We have had recourse though with great reluctance to public reproof But you know Venerable Brethren how fruitless has been Our action They bowed their head for a moment but it was soon uplifted more arrogantly than ever If it were a matter which concerned them alone We might perhaps have overlooked it but the security of the Catholic name is at stake Wherefore as to maintain it

A Catechism of Modernism; Tr. from French J. B. Lemius,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1908 edition Excerpt assigned to history while the divine will go to faith Q Must we not therefore distinguish two Christs two Churches etc A Yes We have that distinction so current among the Modernists between the Christ of history and the Christ of faith between the Church of history and the Church of faith between the Sacraments of history and the Sacraments of faith and so on Q In regard to that human element which alone Agnosticism allows us to retain for historical work what does the second philosophical principle or the principle of transfiguration teach the Modernist A We find that the human element itself which the historian has to work on as it appears in the documents has been by faith transfigured that is to say raised above its historical conditions Q According to this principle of transfiguration what second law governs Modernist history A It becomes necessary to eliminate also the accretions which faith has added to assign them to faith itself and to the history of faith Q Consequently what must the Modernist historian eliminate from the history of Jesus Christ A When treating of Christ the historian must set aside all that surpasses man in his natural condition either according to the psychological conception of him or according to the place and period of his existence Q What third law does the Modernist derive from the philosophical principle of disfiguration A By virtue of the third principle even those things which are not outside the sphere of history they pass through the crucible excluding from history and relegating to faith everything which in their judgment is not in harmony with what they call the logic of facts and in character with the persons of whom they are predicted Q Catechism on Modernism According to the Encyclical 'Pascendi Dominici Gregis' of His Holiness Pius X - Primary Source Edition Jean Baptiste Lemius,John Fitzpatrick,2014-03-18 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book A Catechism on Modernism Founded, on the Encyclical Pascendi Dominici Gregis of His Holiness, Pope Pius X Jean-Baptiste Lemius (O.M.I.),1908 Catechism on Modernism According to the Encyclical 'Pascendi Dominici Gregis' of His Holiness Pius X.
