Autobiography Vol 2 1911 1969:

Here and Now Youngjoo Son, 2013-10-15 Working at the crossroads of contemporary geographical and cultural theory the book explores how social spaces function as sites which foreground D H Lawrence and Virginia Woolf's critiques of the social order and longings for change Looking at various social spaces from homes to nations to utopian space brought into the here and now the book shows the ways in which these writers criticize and deconstruct the contemporary symbolic physical and discursive spatial topoi of the dominant socio spatial order and envision a more liberating and inclusive human geography In addition the book calls for the need to redress the tendency of some spatial theories to underestimate the political potential of literary discourse about space instead of simply and mechanically appropriating some theoretical concepts to literary criticism One of the central findings in the book therefore is that literary texts can perform subversive interventions in the production of social space through their critical interaction with dominant spatial codes Modernism's Print Cultures Faye Hammill, Mark Hussey, 2016-08-25 The print culture of the early twentieth century has become a major area of interest in contemporary Modernist Studies Modernism's Print Cultures surveys the explosion of scholarship in this field and provides an incisive well informed guide for students and scholars alike Surveying the key critical work of recent decades the book explores such topics as Periodical publishing from little magazines such as Rhythm to glossy publications such as Vanity Fair The material aspects of early twentieth century publishing small presses typography illustration and book design The circulation of modernist print artefacts through the book trade libraries book clubs and cafes Educational and political print initiatives Including accounts of archival material available online targeted lists of key further reading and a survey of new trends in the field this is an essential guide to an important area in the study of modernist literature
