Authorshipethics The Reader:

Authorship, Ethics and the Reader D. Rainsford, 1997-03-27 Dominic Rainsford examines ways in which literary texts may seem to comment on their authors ethical status Its argument develops through readings of Blake Dickens and Joyce three authors who find especially vivid ways of casting doubt on their own moral authority at the same time as they expose wider social ills The book combines its interest in ethics with post structuralist scepticism and thus develops a type of radical humanism with applications far beyond the three authors immediately discussed Ethics of Writing Sean Burke, 2010-09-15 The ethical question is the question of our times Within critical theory it has focused on the act of reading This original and courageous study reverses the terms of inquiry to analyse the ethical composition of the act of writing

Authorship's Wake Philip Sayers, 2020-12-10 Authorship s Wake examines the aftermath of the 1960s critique of the author epitomized by Roland Barthes s essay The Death of the Author This critique has given rise to a body of writing that confounds generic distinctions separating the literary and the theoretical Its archive consists of texts by writers who either directly participated in this critique as Barthes did or whose intellectual formation took place in its immediate aftermath These writers include some who are known primarily as theorists Judith Butler others known primarily as novelists Zadie Smith David Foster Wallace and yet others whose texts are difficult to categorize the autofiction of Chris Kraus Sheila Heti and Ben Lerner the autotheory of Maggie Nelson These writers share not only a central motivating question how to move beyond the critique of the author subject but also a way of answering it by writing texts that merge theoretical concerns with literary discourse Authorship s Wake traces the responses their work offers in relation to four themes communication intention agency and labor

The Late-Career Novelist Hywel Dix, 2017-08-10 The first scholarly study of the phenomenon of the late career novel this book explores the ways in which bestselling contemporary novelists look back and respond to their earlier successes in their subsequent writings Exploring the work of major novelists such as Angela Carter V S Naipaul Salman Rushdie Ian McEwan Julian Barnes A S Byatt and Graham Swift The Late Career Novelist draws for the first time on social psychology and career construction theory to examine how the dynamics of a literary career play out in the fictional worlds of our best known novelists From here Hywel Dix develops and argues for a new mode of reading contemporary writing on the contexts of current literary culture The Warner Library: The readers' dictionary of authors

Charles Dudley Warner, John William Cunliffe, Ashley Horace Thorndike, Harry Morgan Ayres, Helen Rex Keller, Gerhard Richard Lomer, 1917 The School Journal , 1898 An African Research Ethics Reader , 2024-06-11 Cultural research ethics is in a nascent phase within the field of research ethics as a whole and requires more attention and in depth articulation With specific case studies this vital volume provides unique perspectives on topics such as social autonomy vis a vis interests of individuals This volume assembles needed resources and case studies in cultural research ethics practices providing insight into current developments and future research directions It is a valuable contribution to cultural research
