Bakhtin And The Visual Arts:

Bakhtin and the Visual Arts Deborah J. Haynes, 2008-06-10 Bakhtin and the Visual Arts is the first book to assess the relevance of Mikhail Bakhtin's ideas as they relate to painting and sculpture Deborah Haynes in depth study of Bakhtin's aesthetics especially his theory of creativity analyzes its applicability to contemporary art theory and criticism With such categories as answerability outsideness and unfinalizability Bakhtin the author posits offers a conceptual basis for interpreting the moral dimensions of creative activity

Bakhtin Reframed Deborah J. Haynes, 2013-03-18 Legendary philosopher and literary critic Mikhail Bakhtin 1895-1975 developed concepts which are bywords within poststructuralist and new historicist literary criticism and philosophy yet have been underutilised by artists art historians and art critics Deborah Haynes aims to adapt Bakhtin's concepts particularly those developed in his later works to an analysis of visual culture and art practices addressing the integral relationship of art with life the artist as creator reception and the audience and context intertextuality This provides both a new conceptual vocabulary for those engaged in visual culture ideas such as answerability unfinalizability heteroglossia chronotope and the carnivalesque defined in the glossary and a new practical approach to historical analysis of generic breakdown and narrative re-emergence in contemporary art Haynes uses Bakhtinian concepts to interpret a range of art from religious icons to post-Impressionist painters and Russian modernists to demonstrate how the application of his thought to visual culture can generate significant new insights Rehabilitating some of Bakhtin's neglected ideas and reframing him as a philosopher of aesthetics Bakhtin Reframed will be essential reading for the huge community of Bakhtin scholars as well as students and practitioners of visual culture

Dialogic Materialism Miriam Jordan-Haladyn, 2014 Dialogic Materialism Bakhtin Embodiment and Moving Image Art argues for the relevance of Mikhail Bakhtin's theories of dialogism as a means of examining the interdisciplinary nature of contemporary moving image art forms The volume comprises six chapters divided into two sections The first section Part I illustrates the key concepts in Bakhtin's multifaceted dialogism and develops these ideas in relation to moving image art The main focus of this first part is the proposal of what the author terms dialogic materialism which builds upon the Marxism inherent in Bakhtin examining the material processes of cultural exchange with a particular emphasis on multi-perspective subjective relations Part II consists of case studies that apply dialogic materialism to the moving image artwork of three artists Stan Douglas Jamelie Hassan and Chris Marker Applying Bakhtinian theory to the field of the visual arts provides a means of examining the fundamentally dialogic nature of moving image art making and viewing a perspective that is not fully developed within the existing literature

Interpreting Visual Culture Ian Heywood, Barry Sandywell, 1999 Ranging from an analysis of the role of vision in current critical discourse to discussion of examples taken from the visual arts ethics and sociology this collection presents material on the interpretation of the visual in modern culture

Telepresence & Bio Art Eduardo Kac, 2005 Eduardo Kac's work represents a turning point What it questions is our current attitudes to creativity taking that word in its most fundamental sense Edward Lucie-Smith author of Visual Arts in the 20th Century His works introduce a vital new meaning into what had been known as the creative process while at the same time investing the notion of the artist-inventor with an original social and ethical responsibility Frank Popper author of Origins and Development of Kinetic Art Kac's radical approach to the creation and presentation of the body as a wet host for artificial memory and site-specific work raises a variety of important questions that range from the status of memory in digital culture to the ethical dilemmas we are facing in the age of bioengineering and tracking technology

Christiane Paul Whitney Museum of Art For nearly two decades Eduardo Kac has been at the cutting edge of media art first inventing early online artworks for the web and continuously developing new art forms that involve telecommunications and robotics as a new platform for art Interest in telepresence also known as telerobotics exploded in the 1990s and remains an important development in media art Since that time Kac has increasingly moved into the fields of biology and biotechnology

Telepresence and Bio Art is the first book to document the evolution of bio art and the aesthetic development of Kac the creator of the artist's gene as well as the controversial glow-in-the-dark genetically engineered rabbit Alba Kac covers a broad range of topics within media art including telecommunications media interactive systems and the Internet telematics and robotics and the contact between electronic art and biotechnology Addressing emerging and complex topics this book will be essential reading for anyone interested in contemporary art

The Art of Translation in Light of Bakhtin's Re-accentuation Slav Gratchev, Margarita Marinova, 2022-10-06 Although Mikhail Bakhtin's study of the novel does not focus in any systematic way on the role that translation plays in the processes of novelistic creation and dissemination when he does broach the topic he grants translation a disproportionately significant role in the emergence and constitution of literature The contributors to this volume from the US Hong Kong Finland Japan Spain Italy Bangladesh and Belgium bring their own polyphonic experiences with the theory and practice of translation to the discussion of Bakhtin's ideas about this topic in order to illuminate their relevance to translation studies today Broadly stated the essays examine the art of translation as an exercise in a cultural re accentuation a transferal of the original text and its characters to the novel soil of a different language and culture which inevitably leads to the proliferation of multivalent meanings and to explore the various re accentuation devices employed over the span of the last 100 years in translating modern texts from one language to another Through its contributors The Art of Translation in Light of Bakhtin s Re accentuation brings together different cultural contexts and disciplines such as literature literary theory the visual arts pedagogy translation studies and philosophy to demonstrate the continued international relevance of Bakhtin s ideas to the study of creative practices broadly understood
