The Baltic States, 1991      The Baltic States Külle Arjakas, 1991      Gazetteer of the Baltic States David Munro, 1996      Leaders of the Baltic States: a Reference Aid United States. Central Intelligence Agency, 1991      Die Geschichte der baltischen Staaten Georg von Rauch, 1974-01-01 Georg von Rauch 1904 1991 was a Baltic German historian specializing in Russia and the Baltic states Rauch was born in Pskov the son of Kornelius von Rauch who was serving in the Russian army in 1911 the family moved to Sangaste in southern Estonia then part of the Russian Empire Rauch graduated from the University of Tartu with a degree in history in 1927 leaving for Germany in 1939 He joined the staff of the University of Marburg where he taught Russian history in 1946 becoming a professor in 1953 In 1958 he accepted an offer from the University of Kiel where he became head of the Institute on East European History His pioneering history of the Soviet Union was translated into other languages and became a standard textbook His son was the anarchist Georg von Rauch killed by the police in 1971 Wikipedia      Democratic Resilience in the Baltics, Vol. 1 David Schultz, Rasa Smaliukiene, Vidmante Giedraityte, 2025-11-08 This open access volume examines current threats to democracy with a focus on Estonia Latvia and Lithuania These small democracies face unique challenges from climate change hybrid security threats and geopolitical tensions The book examines how these nations have adapted their institutions and practices to withstand disinformation campaigns cyberattacks and economic coercion while also addressing environmental issues such as extreme weather and biodiversity loss Part of the two volume Democratic Resilience in the Baltics Volume 1 Resilient Governance and Democratic Stability highlights the mechanisms the Baltic states have developed to counter hybrid threats and maintain democratic integrity It covers political economic legal and social resilience and provides insights into crisis management and infrastructure protection It also covers underexplored areas of resilience such as legal frameworks and intelligence mechanisms The two volumes offer valuable lessons for other small democracies and larger states alike highlighting the importance of resilience in safeguarding democratic institutions in an increasingly unstable world      Statehood and the Law of Self-Determination D. Rai*c, 2002-09-25 Although most international lawyers assumed that the distribution of the land surface of the earth between States was more or less final after the end of decolonization recent practice has disproved this assumption Eritrea separated from Ethiopia and new States were created out of the former Soviet Union the former Yugoslavia and the former Czechoslovakia There is no reason to believe that these events form the end of the creation of new States Numerous communities within existing States claim a right to full separate statehood on the basis of their entitlement to an alleged right to self determination However in most cases the international community rejected such claims to statehood even if the territorial entity satisfied the traditional criteria for statehood On the other hand in other cases including some of those mentioned above the international community acknowledged the statehood of entities which clearly failed to meet these criteria In the light of the above mentioned developments this book examines the modern law of statehood and in particular the role of the law of self determination in the process of the formation of States in international law The study shows that the law of statehood has changed considerably since the establishment of the United Nations It is argued that the law of self determination is particularly relevant for explaining the international community s position regarding the general recognition or the general denial of statehood of different territorial entities under contemporary international law

Baltic-Black Sea Regionalisms Olga Bogdanova, Andrey Makarychev, 2019-10-01 This edited volume focuses on various forms of regionalism and neighborhoods in the Baltic Black Sea area In the light of current reshaping of borderlands and new geopolitical and military confrontations in Europe s eastern margins such as the annexation of Crimea and the war in Donbas this book analyzes different types and modalities of regional integration and region making from a comparative perspective It conceptualizes cooperative and conflictual encounters as a series of networks and patchworks that differently link and relate major actors to each other and thus shape these interconnections as domains of inclusion and exclusion bordering and debordering securitization and desecuritization This peculiar combination of geopolitics ethnopolitics and biopolitics makes the Baltic Black Sea trans national region a source of inspiring policy practices and in the light of new security risks a matter of increased concern all over Europe The contributors from various disciplines cover topics such as cultural and civilizational spaces of belonging and identity politics the rise of right wing populism region building under the condition of multiple security pressures and the influence and regional strategies of different external powers including the EU Russia and Turkey on cross and trans regional relations in the area
