Image, Eye and Art in Calvino Birgitte Grundtvig, 2017-07-05 Few recent writers have been as interested in the cross over between texts and visual art as Italo Calvino 1923-85 Involved for most of his life in the publishing industry he took as much interest in the visual as in the textual aspects of his own and other writers books In this volume twenty international Calvino experts including Barenghi Battistini Belpoliti Hofstadter Ricci Scarpa and others consider the many facets of the interplay between the visual and textual in Calvino's works from the use of colours in his fiction to the influence of cartoons from the graphic qualities of the book covers themselves to the significance of photography and landscape in his fiction and non-fiction. Cartoons Giannalberto Bendazzi, 1988 Cartoons on the Bay, Italian Books and Periodicals, 2001 Mafalda Isabella Cosse, 2019-12-23 Since its creation in 1964 readers from all over the world have loved the comic Mafalda primarily because of the sharp wit and rebellious nature of its title character, a four-year-old girl who is wise beyond her years. Through Mafalda, Argentine cartoonist Joaquín Salvador Lavado explores complex questions about class, identity, modernization, and state violence. In Mafalda: A Social and Political History of Latin America's Global Comic, first published in Argentina in 2014 and appearing here in English for the first time, Isabella Cosse analyzes the comic's vast appeal across multiple generations. From Mafalda breaking the fourth wall to speak directly to readers to express her opposition to the 1966 Argentine coup to Spanish students' protest signs bearing her face to the comic's cult status in Korea, Cosse provides insights into the cartoon's production, circulation, and incorporation into social and political conversations. Analyzing how Mafalda reflects generational conflicts, gender, modernization, the Cold War, authoritarianism, neoliberalism, and much more, Cosse demonstrates the unexpected power of humor to shape revolution and resistance. COVID-19 and a World of Ad Hoc Geographies Stanley D. Brunn, Donna Gilbreath, 2022-09-15 This book provides an interdisciplinary overview of the causes and impacts of COVID-19 on populations, economies, politics, institutions, and environments from all world regions. The book maps the causes, effects, and impacts of the virus and describes the impact of the virus on, among others, health care, teaching, and learning, travel, tourism, daily life, local and regional economies, media, elections, and indigenous populations, and much more. Contributions to this book come from the humanities, social and policy science disciplines, as well as from emerging transdisciplinary fields including climate change, sustainability, health care, and epidemiology, security, art, visualization, economic and social well-being, law, and borderland studies. As such, this book will be a rich source of information to all those geographers, social scientists, and urban and regional planners working in this field.
