The Politics of Interweaving Performance Cultures Erika Fischer-Lichte, Torsten Jost, Saskya Iris Jain, 2014-01-10 This book provides a timely intervention in the fields of performance studies and theatre history and to larger issues of global cultural exchange The authors offer a provocative argument for rethinking the scholarly assessment of how diverse performative cultures interact how they are interwoven and how they are dependent upon each other While the term intercultural theatre as a concept points back to postcolonialism and its contradictions The Politics of Interweaving Performance Cultures explores global developments in the performing arts that cannot adequately be explained and understood using postcolonial theory The authors challenge the dichotomy the West and the rest where Western cultures are universal and non-Western cultures are particular as well as ideas of national culture and cultural ownership This volume uses international case studies to explore the politics of globalization looking at new paternalistic forms of exchange and the new inequalities emerging from it These case studies are guided by the principle that processes of interweaving performance cultures are in fact political processes The authors explore the inextricability of the aesthetic and the political whereby aesthetics cannot be perceived as opposite to the political rather the aesthetic is the political Helen Gilbert's essay Let the Games Begin Pageants Protests Indigeneity 1968 2010 won the 2015 Marlis Thiersch Prize for best essay from the Australasian Drama Theatre and Performance Studies Association Sounding Our Way Home Susan Miyo Asai, 2024-01-18 A product of twenty five years of archival and primary research Sounding Our Way Home Japanese American Musicking and the Politics of Identity narrates the efforts of three generations of Japanese Americans to reach home through musicking Using ethnomusicology as a lens Susan Miyo Asai examines the musical choices of a population that historically is considered outside the racial and ethnic boundaries of American citizenship Emphasizing the notion of national identity and belonging the volume provokes a discussion about the challenges of nation building in a democratic society Asai addresses the politics of music interrogating the ways musicking functions as a performance of social cultural and political identification for Japanese Americans in the United States Musicking is an inherently political act at the intersection of music identity and politics particularly if it involves expressing one's ethnicity and or race Asai further investigates how Japanese American ethnic identification and cultural practices relate to national belonging Musicking cultivates a narrative of a shared history and aesthetic between performers and listeners The discourse situates not only Japanese Americans but all Asians into the Black white binary of race relations in the United States Sounding Our Way Home contributes to the ongoing struggle for acceptance and equal representation for people of color in the US A history of Japanese American musicking across three generations the book unveils the social and political discrimination that nonwhite immigrants and their offspring continue to face when it comes to finding acceptance in US society and culture The Official Railway Guide ,1892 Merchant Vessels of the United States...
