Building a Global Bank Mauro F. Guillén, Adrian Tschoegl, 2008-07-01 In 2004 Spain's Banco Santander purchased Britain's Abbey National Bank in a deal valued at fifteen billion dollars an acquisition that made Santander one of the ten largest financial institutions in the world Here Mauro Guillén and Adrian Tschoegl tackle the question of how this once sleepy family run provincial bank in a developing economy transformed itself into a financial services group with more than sixty six million customers on three continents Founded 150 years ago in the Spanish port city of the same name Santander is the only large bank in the world where three successive generations of one family have led top management and the board of directors But Santander is fully modern Drawing on rich data and in depth interviews with family members and managers Guillén and Tschoegl reveal how strategic decisions by the family and complex political social technological and economic forces drove Santander's unprecedented rise to global prominence The authors place the bank in this competitive milieu comparing it with its rivals in

Europe and America and showing how Santander faced with growing competition in Spain and Europe sought growth opportunities in Latin America and elsewhere They also address the complexities of managerial succession and family leadership and weigh the implications of Santander s stellar rise for the consolidation of European banking Building a Global Bank tells the fascinating story behind this powerful corporation s remarkable transformation and of the family behind it
