A Rwandan Bishop's Confession Joel Kubwimana,2021-08-12 In this book I analyze why Bishop Aloys Bigirumwami prioritizes the use of the native language and the value of primal religions in spreading the gospel According to Bigirumwami the gospel should be taught in the native language because it is the people s heart language On the other hand when the message is spoken in non native languages the gospel may spread but it does not reach the hearts of the people As for the primal religions tradition religions for Bigirumwami they are part of what Jesus came to fulfill rather than abolish In Rwanda Western missionaries neglected the Rwandan primal religions by demonizing them and the result was that the gospel was not planted in the good soil the reason why the genocide against the Tutsi was executed in 1994 in a country where 91 percent of its population were Christians A part of exploring the Christian mission history in Rwanda this book points out the need to continue where Bigirumwami and others of his time left off in their effort of inculturation of the Christian faith in Rwanda and Africa in general The Greatest Story Bobby Ewe Kong Sng,2008 God Speaks My Language Aloo Osotsi Mojola,2020-03-31 This is the fascinating and important story of how God s Word came to East Africa Beginning with the pioneering efforts of Krapf and Rebmann Aloo Osotsi Mojola traces the history of Bible translation in the region from 1844 to the present He incorporates four decades of personal conversations and interviews along with extensive research to provide the first comprehensive account of the translations undertaken in Kenya Uganda Tanzania Rwanda Burundi and eastern Democratic Republic of Congo The maps and tables included assist the reader as does a history of the Swahili language its standardization role as lingua franca and impact on the work of translation Mojola s writing is a tribute to those who sacrificed much in their quest to see the word of God accessible to all people in all places and the many who continue to sacrifice for the peoples of East Africa This book is a key contribution to the important and ongoing narrative of how God has met us and continues to meet us in our own contexts and our own languages South Africa ,1988 The Jewish World in Stamps Ronald L.
