

Biblical Criticism

- Reading the Bible literally (fundamentalism) is a new idea which became popular in the 1800s.
- Since Vatican II (1962-1965), the Catholic Church has declared that one must read the Bible prayerfully, knowing it is Divine Truth, and in its historical context.
 - This means that we must use various reading methods in order to fully understand a biblical passage.
- Modern scholars have developed many different methods to read Scripture in order to determine its origins, authors, and original message.
