Biblical Christology A Study In Lutheran Dogmatics:

Biblical Christology John Schaller, 1919 The Princeton Theological Review , 1920 American Lutheran Survey , 1919 The Lutheran Quarterly , 1885 The Doctrine of Atonement Jack D. Kilcrease, 2018-03-22 Post Enlightenment theology has frequently rejected the historic Christian doctrine of substitutionary atonement For theologians standing in the tradition of the Lutheran Confessions rejection of substitutionary atonement is particularly problematic because it endangers the unconditional nature of the justification through faith If one rejects vicarious satisfaction then the only alternative is to make redemption dependent on what sinners do for themselves In this study Jack Kilcrease argues for substitutionary atonement within the perspective of what he calls the Confessional Lutheran Paradigm The author also critiques a wide variety of modern Lutheran theologians understandings of atonement Werner Elert Gustaf Aulen Gustaf Wingren Robert Jenson Eberhard Jungel Wolfhart Pannenberg and Gerhard Forde As Kilcrease demonstrates although these authors often give many fine theological insights their distortion or misrepresentation of the doctrine of atonement carries over to a problematic understanding of law gospel and justification through faith The Self-Donation of God Jack D. Kilcrease, 2013-03-20 In The Self Donation of God Jack Kilcrease argues that the speech act of promise is always an act of self donation A person who unilaterally promises to another is bound to take a particular series of actions to fulfill that promise Being that creation is grounded in God's promising speech the divine human relationship is fundamentally one of divine self donation and human receptivity Sin disrupts this relationship and therefore redemption is constituted by a reassertion of divine promise of salvation in the face of the condemnation of the law Gen 3:15 As a new and effective word of grace the promise of a savior begins the process of redemption within which God speaks forth a new narrative of creation In this new narrative God gives himself in an even deeper manner to humanity By donating himself through a promise first to the protological humanity and then to Israel he binds himself to them At the end of this history of self binding God in Christ enters into the condemnation of the law neutralizes it in the cross and brings about a new creation through his omnipotent word of promise actualized in the resurrection The American Journal of Sociology Albion W. Small, Ellsworth Faris, Ernest Watson Burgess, 1926 Established in 1895 as the first U S scholarly journal in its field AJS remains a leading voice for analysis and research in the social sciences presenting work on the theory methods practice and history of sociology AJS also seeks the application of perspectives from other social sciences and publishes papers by psychologists anthropologists statisticians economists educators historians and political scientists Biblical Dogmatics Milton Spenser Terry, 1907 The Christian Story: A narrative interpretation of basic Christian doctrine Gabriel Fackre, 1984 Biblical Theology of the Old and New Testaments Brevard S. Childs, 1993-04 This monumental work is the first comprehensive biblical theology to appear in many years and is the culmination of Brevard Childs's lifelong commitment to constructing a biblical theology that surmounts objections to the discipline raised over the past generation Childs rejects any approaches that overstress either the continuity or discontinuity between the Old and New Testaments He refuses to follow the common pattern in Christian thought of identifying biblical theology with the New Testament s interest in the Old Rather Childs maps out an approach that reflects on the whole Christian Bible with its two very different voices each of which retains continuing integrity and is heard on its own terms

Christian Dogmatics Johannes Jacobus van Oosterzee,1874 Biblical Dogmatics A. G. Voigt,1917 Christian Dogmatics and Notes on the History of Dogma Conrad Emil Lindberg,1922 A Compendium of Christian Theology William Burt Pope,1875 Cumulative Catalog of Lutheran Books in the English Language Olaf Morgan Norlie,1924 Twentieth-Century Lutheran Theologians Mark C. Mattes,2013-08-14 This collection of essays examines important twentieth century Lutheran theologians including European and North American voices Each essay provides an overview of the life and thought of important confessional Lutherans who shaped theology with an ecumenical world wide impact The focus here is not on later twentieth century figures but earlier ones selected similar to the spirit manifest in Karl Barth s contention lest we forget where contemporary theology came from Protestant Theology From Rousseau to Ritschl The essays composed over the last five years were initiated by Lutheran Quarterly in order to assess our recent past as we move into a new millennium The goal of each author each a leading theologian has been to describe each thinker s life and vocation and how each thinker s work continues to impact theology today
