Biblical Masterpieces 2006 Calendar:

Between Manuscript and Print Sylvia Brockstieger, Paul Schweitzer-Martin, 2023-07-24 A cross cultural comparative view on the transition from a predominant culture of handwriting to a predominant culture of print in the late medieval and early modern periods is provided here combining research on Christian and Jewish European book culture with findings on East Asian manuscript and print culture This approach highlights interactions and interdependencies instead of retracing a linear process from the manuscript book to its printed successor While each chapter is written as a disciplinary study focused on one specific case from the respective field the volume as a whole allows for transcultural perspectives It thereby not only focusses on change but also on simultaneities of manuscript and printing practices as well as on shifts in the perception of media writing surfaces and materials Which values did writers printers and readers attribute to the handwritten and printed materials For which types of texts was handwriting preferred or perceived as suitable How and under which circumstances could handwritten and printed texts coexist even within the same document and which epistemic dynamics emerged from such textual assemblages

Jerusalem, 1000-1400 Barbara Drake Boehm, Melanie Holcomb, 2016-09-14 Medieval Jerusalem was a vibrant international center home to multiple cultures faiths and languages Harmonious and dissonant voices from many lands including Persians Turks Greeks Syrians Armenians Georgians Copts Ethiopians Indians and Europeans passed in the narrow streets of a city not much larger than midtown Manhattan Patrons artists pilgrims poets and scholars from Christian Jewish and Islamic traditions focused their attention on the Holy City endowing and enriching its sacred buildings creating luxury goods for its residents and praising its merits This artistic fertility was particularly in evidence between the eleventh and fourteenth centuries notwithstanding often devastating circumstances from the earthquake of 1033 to the fierce battles of the Crusades So strong a magnet was Jerusalem that it drew out the creative imagination of even those separated from it by great distance from as far north as Scandinavia to as far east as present day China This publication is the first to define these four centuries as a singularly creative moment in a singularly complex city Through absorbing essays and incisive discussions of nearly 200 works of art Jerusalem 1000 1400 Every People Under Heaven explores not only the meaning of the city to its many faiths and its importance as a destination for tourists and pilgrims but also the aesthetic strands that enhanced and enlivened the medieval city that served as the crossroads of the known world

Satanic Feminism Per Faxneld, 2017 The notion of woman as the Devil's accomplice is prominent throughout Christian history and was used to legitimise the subordination of wives and daughters In the 19th century rebellious females performed counter readings of this misogynist tradition and Lucifer was reconceptualised as a feminist liberator Per Faxneld shows how this surprising Satanic feminism was expressed in a wide range of 19th century texts and artistic productions Letter Arts Review ,2007 The Publishers Weekly ,2005
